Note 1.3 Material Accounting Policies

(a) Principles of consolidation and equity accounting

(i) Subsidiaries

Subsidiaries are entities (including structured entities) over which the Group has control. The Group controls an entity when the Group is exposed to, or has rights to, variable returns from its involvement with the entity and has the ability to affect those returns through its power to direct the relevant activities of that entity. Subsidiaries are fully consolidated from the date on which control is transferred to the Group.

The Group combines the financial statements of the parent and its subsidiaries line by line adding together items of assets, liabilities, equity, income and expenses. For this purpose, income and expenses of the subsidiary are based on the amounts of the assets and liabilities recognized in the Restated Statement of Assets and Liabilities at the acquisition date. Intra-Group transactions, balances and unrealised gains on transactions between entities within the Group are eliminated. Unrealised losses are also eliminated unless the transaction provides evidence of an impairment of the transferred asset. Accounting policies of subsidiaries have been changed where necessary to ensure consistency with the policies adopted by the Group. Non-controlling interests in the results and equity of subsidiaries are shown separately in the Restated Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss, Restated Consolidated Statement of Changes in Equity and Restated Consolidated Statement of Assets and Liabilities respectively.

Clean Max Enviro Energy Solutions Limited (Formerly known as Clean Max Enviro Energy Solutions Private Limited)

Notes to the Restated Consolidated Financial Information

(ii) Joint Ventures and Associate - Equity Method Accounting

Joint ventures are joint arrangements whereby the parties that have joint control of the arrangements have rights to the net assets and obligations for the liabilities, relating to the arrangement. An associate is an entity in which the Group has significant influence but not control or joint control, over the financial and operating policies.

Interests in joint ventures and associate are accounted for using the equity method, after initially being recognised at cost in the Restated Consolidated Statement of Assets and Liabilities.

Under the equity method of accounting, the investments are initially recognised at cost and adjusted thereafter to recognize the Group's share of the post-acquisition profits or losses of the investee in the Restated Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss, and the Group's share of other comprehensive income of the investee in Other Comprehensive Income. Dividends received or receivable from joint ventures and associate are recognised as a reduction in the carrying amount of the investment. When the Group's share of losses in an equity-accounted investment equals or exceeds its interest in the entity, including any other unsecured long-term receivables, the Group does not recognize further losses, unless it has incurred obligations or made payments on behalf of the other entity. Unrealised gains on transactions between the Group and its Joint Ventures and Associate are eliminated to the extent of the Group's interest in these entities. Unrealised losses are also eliminated unless the transaction provides evidence of an impairment of the asset transferred. Accounting policies of equity accounted investees have been changed where necessary to ensure consistency with the policies adopted by the Group. The carrying amount of equity accounted investments are tested for impairment.

The financial statements of subsidiaries, joint ventures and associate consolidated are drawn up to the same reporting date as that of the Group.

(iii) Change of ownership interest in subsidiary

The Group treats transactions with non-controlling interests that do not result in a loss of control as transactions with equity owners of the Group. A change in ownership interest results in an adjustment between the carrying amounts of the controlling and non-controlling interests to reflect their relative interests in the subsidiary. Any difference between the amount of the adjustment to non-controlling interests and any consideration paid or received is recognised within equity.

When the Group ceases to consolidate or equity account for an investment because of a loss of control, joint control or significant influence, any retained interest in the entity is re-measured to its fair value with the change in carrying amount recognised in profit or loss. This fair value becomes the initial carrying amount for the purposes of subsequently accounting for the retained interest as a joint venture or financial asset. In addition, any amounts previously recognised in Other Comprehensive Income in respect of that entity are accounted for as if the Group had directly disposed of the related assets or liabilities. This may mean that amounts previously recognised in Other Comprehensive Income are reclassified to the Restated Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss. If the ownership interest in a joint venture is reduced but joint control or significant influence is retained, only a proportionate share of the amounts previously recognised in Other Comprehensive Income are reclassified to the Restated Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss where appropriate.

(iv) Non-controlling interest

Non-controlling interests in the net assets (excluding goodwill) of consolidated subsidiaries are identified separately from the Company's equity. The interest of non-controlling shareholders may be initially measured either at fair value or at the non-controlling interest's proportionate share of the fair value of the acquiree's identifiable net assets.

Clean Max Enviro Energy Solutions Limited (Formerly known as Clean Max Enviro Energy Solutions Private Limited)

Notes to the Restated Consolidated Financial Information

For this purpose, income and expenses of the subsidiary are based on the amounts of the assets and liabilities recognized in the consolidated financial statements at the acquisition date. The choice of measurement basis is made on an acquisition-to-acquisition basis. Subsequent to acquisition, the carrying amount of non-controlling interest is the amount of those interests at initial recognition plus the non-controlling interest's share of subsequent changes in equity. Total comprehensive income is attributed to non-controlling interests even if it results in the non-controlling interest having a deficit balance. A change in the ownership interest of a subsidiary, without a loss of control, is accounted for as an equity transaction. If the Group loses control over a subsidiary, it:

- Derecognises the assets (including goodwill) and liabilities of the subsidiary
- Derecognises the carrying amount of any non-controlling interests
- Derecognises the cumulative translation differences recorded in equity
- Recognises the fair value of the consideration received
- Recognises the fair value of any investment retained
- Recognises any surplus or deficit in profit or loss
- Reclassifies the parent's share of components previously recognised in OCI to profit or loss or retained earnings, as appropriate, as would be required if the Group had directly disposed of the related assets or liabilities

(b) Revenue from contracts with customers

Revenue from operations

Revenue is recognised to the extent that it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the Group and revenue can be reliably measured. Revenue excludes indirect taxes which are collected on behalf of Government.

Clean Max Enviro Energy Solutions Limited (Formerly known as Clean Max Enviro Energy Solutions Private Limited)

Notes to the Restated Consolidated Financial Information

(i) Revenue from sale of power:

Revenue from sale of power is recognised when the units of electricity is delivered at the price agreed with the customer in the power purchase agreement which coincides with the transfer of control and the Group has a present right to receive the payment.

Revenue is measured based on the transaction price, which is the consideration, adjusted for discounts and other incentives, if any, as specified in the contract with the customer or on account of change in law. Revenue also excludes taxes or other amounts collected from customers in its capacity as an agent. If the consideration in a contract includes a variable amount or consideration payable to the customer, the Group estimates the amount of consideration to which it will be entitled in exchange for transferring the goods/services to the customer. The variable consideration is estimated at contract inception and constrained until it is highly probable that a significant revenue reversal in the amount of cumulative revenue recognised will not occur when the associated uncertainty with the variable consideration is subsequently resolved.

(ii) Revenue from construction contracts:

Revenue from contracts with customers is recognised when a performance obligation is satisfied by transfer of promised goods or services to a customer. For performance obligation satisfied over time, the revenue is recognised by measuring the progress towards satisfaction of performance obligation. The Group transfers control of a good or service over time and satisfies a performance obligation and recognises revenue over a period of time if one of the following criteria is met:

- (a) the customer simultaneously consumes the benefit of the Group's performance or
- (b) the customer controls the asset as it is being created/enhanced by the Group's performance or
- (c) there is no alternative use of the asset and the group has either explicit or implicit right of payment considering legal precedents

Fixed price contracts: Contract revenue is recognised at allocable transaction price which represents the cost of work performed on the contract plus proportionate margin, using the percentage of completion method. Percentage of completion is the proportion of cost of work performed to-date, to the total estimated contract costs.

Determination of percentage of completion

The Group uses the proportionate completion method for recognition of revenue, accounting for unbilled revenue/unearned revenue and contract cost thereon for its turnkey contracts. The percentage of completion is measured by reference to the stage of the projects and contracts determined based on the proportion of contract costs incurred for work performed to date bear to the estimated total contract costs. Use of the proportionate completion method requires the Group to estimate the efforts or costs expended to date as a proportion of the total efforts or costs to be expended. Significant assumptions are required in determining the stage of completion, the extent of the contract cost incurred, the estimated total contract revenue and contract cost and the recoverability of the contracts. These estimates are based on events existing at the end of each reporting date.

(iii) Revenue from sale of services:

Revenue from services rendered over a period of time, such as operation and maintenance contracts and common infrastructure usage service, are recognised on straight line basis over the period of the performance obligation. Consideration is adjusted for the time value of money if the period between the transfer of goods or services and the receipt of payment exceeds twelve months and there is a significant financing benefit either to the customer or the Group.

(iv) Contract balances:

A trade receivable represents the Group's right to an amount of consideration that is unconditional i.e. only the passage of time is required before payment of consideration is due and the amount is billable. Unbilled revenue is recognised for work performed under a contract but has not yet been invoiced to the customer on account of estimation and judgement involved.

Clean Max Enviro Energy Solutions Limited (Formerly known as Clean Max Enviro Energy Solutions Private Limited)

Notes to the Restated Consolidated Financial Information

Advance from customer represents a contract liability which is the obligation to transfer goods or services to a customer for which the Group has received consideration from the customer.

Amount due to customers under construction contracts and deferred revenue represents the difference between the revenue recognised and amount invoiced.

Other income

(v) Interest income:

For all financial instruments measured at amortized cost, interest income is recorded using the effective interest rate (EIR), which is the rate that discounts the estimated future cash payments or receipts through the expected life of the financial instruments or a shorter period, where appropriate, to the net carrying amount of the financial assets on initial recognition. Interest income is included in Other income in the Restated Consolidated Statement of Profit or Loss.

(vi) Insurance claim:

Insurance claim on loss of asset and profit is recognised on receipt basis in the Restated Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss.

(c) Costs to obtain a contract with the customer

The Group and its joint ventures and associate capitalises incremental costs of obtaining a contract, if any, and costs incurred to fulfil a contract are amortised over the period of execution of the contract in proportion to the progress measured in terms of a proportion of actual cost incurred to-date, to the total estimated cost attributable to the performance obligation.

(d) Goods and Service tax input credit

Goods and Service tax input credit is accounted for in the books in the period in which the underlying goods and service received is accounted and when there is reasonable certainty in availing / utilizing the credits.

(e) Employee benefits

Short-term benefits

Salaries, wages, and other short-term benefits, accruing to employees are recognised at undiscounted amounts in the period in which the employee renders the related service.

Retirement benefits

Defined contribution plan:

The Group offers its employees defined contribution plans in the form of provident fund. Provident fund cover substantially all regular employees. Contributions are paid during the year into separate funds under certain fiduciary-type arrangements. Both the employees and the Group pays predetermined contributions into provident fund and family pension fund. The contributions are normally based on a certain proportion of the employee's salary. The contributions made are charged as an expense based on the amount of contribution required to be made and when services are rendered by the employees.

Defined benefit plan:

For defined benefit plans in the form of gratuity, the cost of providing benefits is determined using the Projected Unit Credit method, with actuarial valuations being carried out at each balance sheet date. Actuarial gains and losses are recognised in Other Comprehensive Income in the period in which they occur. Past service cost is recognised immediately to the extent that the benefits are already vested and otherwise is amortised on a straight-line basis over the average period until the benefits become vested. The retirement benefit obligation recognised in the Balance Sheet represents the present value of the defined benefit obligation as adjusted for unrecognised past service cost, as reduced by the fair value of scheme assets.

Clean Max Enviro Energy Solutions Limited (Formerly known as Clean Max Enviro Energy Solutions Private Limited)

Notes to the Restated Consolidated Financial Information

Any asset resulting from this calculation is limited to past service cost, plus the present value of available refunds and reductions in future contributions to the schemes.

(f) Share-based payments

The grant date fair value of options granted to employees is recognised as an employee expense, with a corresponding increase in equity, over the period that the employees become unconditionally entitled to the options. The expense is recorded for each separately vesting portion of the award as if the award was, in substance, multiple awards. The increase in equity recognised in connection with share-based payments transaction is presented as a separate component in equity under 'Employee Stock Options outstanding'. The amount recognised as an expense is adjusted to reflect the actual number of stock options that vest. Details regarding the determination of the fair value of equity-settled share-based transactions are set out in Note 43.

(g) Foreign Currencies

The functional currency of the Group is the Indian rupee (Rs.).

Income and expenses in foreign currencies are recorded at exchange rates prevailing on the date of the transaction. Foreign currency denominated monetary assets and liabilities are translated at the exchange rate prevailing on the balance sheet date and exchange gains and losses arising on settlement and restatement are recognised in Restated Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss.

Foreign currency denominated non - monetary assets and liabilities that are measured at historical cost are not retranslated.

(h) Taxation

Income tax expense represents the sum of the tax currently payable and deferred tax.

a. Current tax

The tax currently payable is based on taxable profit for the reporting period. Taxable profit differs from 'profit before tax' as reported in the Restated Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss because of items of income or expense that are taxable or deductible in other years and items that are never taxable or deductible. The Group's current tax is calculated using tax rates (applicable tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

Current income tax assets and liabilities for the current and prior periods are measured at the amount expected to be recovered from or paid to the taxation authorities. Current income taxes are recognised in the Restated Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss except to the extent that the tax relates to items recognised outside profit and loss, either in other comprehensive income or directly in equity. Management periodically evaluates positions taken in the tax returns with respect to situations in which applicable tax regulations are subject to interpretation and establishes provisions where appropriate.

The Group has accounted income tax based on annualized performance of the Group in accordance with Ind AS 34 for the six months period ended 30th September 2025 and 30th September 2024.

b. Deferred tax

Deferred tax is recognised on temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities in the Restated Consolidated Financial Information and the corresponding tax bases used in the computation of taxable profit.

Clean Max Enviro Energy Solutions Limited (Formerly known as Clean Max Enviro Energy Solutions Private Limited)

Notes to the Restated Consolidated Financial Information

Deferred tax is not recognised for:

- temporary differences on the initial recognition of assets or liabilities in a transaction that:
 - is not a business combination; and
 - at the time of the transaction (i) affects neither accounting nor taxable profit or loss and (ii) does not give rise to equal taxable and deductible temporary differences
- temporary differences related to investments in subsidiaries, associates and joint arrangements to the extent that the Group is able to control the timing of the reversal of the temporary differences and it is probable that they will not reverse in the foreseeable future; and
- taxable temporary differences arising on the initial recognition of goodwill.

Deferred tax liabilities are generally recognised for all taxable temporary differences. Deferred tax assets are generally recognised for all deductible temporary differences to the extent that it is probable that taxable profits will be available against which those deductible temporary differences can be utilized. Such deferred tax assets and liabilities are not recognised if the temporary difference arises from the initial recognition of assets and liabilities in a transaction that affects neither the taxable profit nor the accounting profit.

Deferred tax assets are recognised for unused tax losses, unused tax credits and deductible temporary differences to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profits will be available against which they can be used. Future taxable profits are determined based on the reversal of relevant taxable temporary differences. If the amount of taxable temporary differences is insufficient to recognise a deferred tax asset in full, then future taxable profits, adjusted for reversals of existing temporary differences, are considered, based on the business plans for individual subsidiaries in the Group. Deferred tax assets are reviewed at each reporting date and are reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that the related tax benefit will be realised; such reductions are reversed when the probability of future taxable profits improves.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the year in which the liability is settled or the asset realised, based on tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

The measurement of deferred tax liabilities and assets reflects the tax consequences that would follow from the manner in which the Group expects, at the end of the reporting period, to recover or settle the carrying amount of its assets and liabilities.

(i) Property, Plant and Equipment, Capital work in progress and Depreciation

All items of property, plant and equipment, including freehold land, are initially recorded at cost. Subsequent to initial recognition, property, plant and equipment other than freehold land are measured at cost less accumulated depreciation and any accumulated impairment losses.

The cost of property, plant and equipment comprises its purchase price net of any trade discounts and rebates, any import duties and other taxes (other than those subsequently recoverable from the tax authorities), any directly attributable expenditure on making the asset ready for its intended use, including relevant borrowing costs for qualifying assets and any expected costs of decommissioning.

Borrowing cost allocated to and utilised for qualifying assets pertaining to the period up to the date of capitalisation is added to the cost of the assets. Salary cost and cost of travelling directly attributable has been capitalised to the cost of capital work in progress.

Freehold land is not depreciated.

Any gain or loss arising on derecognition / disposal of an asset is included in profit or loss.

Clean Max Enviro Energy Solutions Limited (Formerly known as Clean Max Enviro Energy Solutions Private Limited)

Notes to the Restated Consolidated Financial Information

Depreciation on property, plant and equipment has been provided as per the useful life prescribed in Schedule II to the Companies Act, 2013 except in respect Solar Power Plant, Wind Farms and Hybrid Farms where the life is considered as 25 years taking into account the nature of the asset, the estimated usage of the asset, the operating conditions of the asset, manufacturers warranties and maintenance support, etc.

The residual values, useful lives and methods of depreciation of property, plant and equipment are reviewed at each financial year end and adjusted prospectively, as appropriate.

The estimated useful lives of property, plant and equipment for current and comparative periods are as follows:

Category of Asset	Useful Life
Plant and machinery	15 to 25 years
Furniture and fixtures	10 years
Motor vehicle	10 years
Office equipments	10 years
Computers	3 years

Depreciable amount for assets is the cost of an asset, or other amount substituted for cost, less its estimated residual value.

Expenditure related to and incurred during implementation (net of incidental income) of capital projects to get the assets ready for intended use is included under "Capital Work in Progress (including related inventories)". The same is allocated to the respective items of property plant and equipment on completion of construction / erection of the capital project / property, plant and equipment. Capital work in progress is stated at cost, net of accumulated impairment loss, if any.

Subsequent expenditure is capitalised only if it is probable that the future economic benefits associated with the expenditure will flow to the Group and the cost of the item can be measured reliably.

(j) Other Intangible Assets and Amortisation

Intangible assets with finite useful lives that are acquired separately are carried at cost less accumulated amortization and accumulated impairment losses (if any). Amortization is recognised on a straight-line basis over their estimated useful lives. The estimated useful life and amortization method are reviewed at the end of each reporting period, with the effect of any changes in estimate being accounted for on a prospective basis.

The estimated useful lives of other intangible assets for current and comparative periods are as follows:

Category of Asset	Useful Life
Computer software	3 years
Commercial Right to use lease hold land	25-30 years
Customer contracts	Balance PPA Tenure

Subsequent expenditure is capitalised only if it is probable that the future economic benefits associated with the expenditure will flow to the Group and the cost of the item can be measured reliably.

Clean Max Enviro Energy Solutions Limited (Formerly known as Clean Max Enviro Energy Solutions Private Limited)

Notes to the Restated Consolidated Financial Information

(k) Intangible assets under development

Expenditure on intangible assets eligible for capitalization are carried as intangible assets under development where such assets are not yet ready for their intended use.

(l) Impairment of non-financial assets

At each reporting date, non-financial assets are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. An impairment loss is recognised for the amount by which the asset's carrying amount exceeds its recoverable amount. The recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's fair value less costs of disposal and value in use. For the purposes of assessing impairment, assets are compared at the lowest levels for which there are largely independent cash inflows (cash-generating units). Non-financial assets other than goodwill that suffered impairment are reviewed for possible reversal of the impairment at the end of each reporting period. Intangible assets that have an indefinite useful life or intangible assets not ready to use are not subject to amortization and are tested annually for impairment.

(m) Impairment of financial assets

The Group assesses at each reporting date whether there is any objective evidence that a financial asset is impaired. ECLs are based on the difference between the contractual cash flows due in accordance with the contract and all the cash flows that the Group expects to receive, discounted at an approximation of the original effective interest rate. The expected cash flows will include cash flows from the sale of collateral held or other credit enhancements that are integral to the contractual terms.

ECLs are recognised in two stages. For credit exposures for which there has not been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition, ECLs are provided for credit losses that result from default events that are possible within the next 12 months (a 12-month ECL). For those credit exposures for which there has been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition, a loss allowance is recognised for credit losses expected over the remaining life of the exposure, irrespective of timing of the default (a lifetime ECL).

The Group considers a financial asset to be in default when internal or external information indicates that the Group is unlikely to receive the outstanding contractual amounts in full before taking into account any credit enhancements held by the Group. A financial asset is written off when there is no reasonable expectation of recovering the contractual cash flows.

For trade receivables, the Group applied a simplified approach in calculating ECLs. Therefore, the Group does not track changes in credit risk, but instead recognizes a loss allowance based on lifetime ECLs at each reporting date. Trade receivables of the Group are mainly from high credit worthy Commercial and Industrial ('C&I') customers. Delayed payment carries interest as per the terms of agreements with C&I customers.

The Group assesses ECL associated with its assets carried at amortised cost based on Group's past history of recovery, creditworthiness of the counter party and existing market conditions. The impairment methodology applied depends on whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk. For trade receivables, the Group applies the simplified approach for recognition of impairment allowance as provided in Ind AS 109 – Financial Instruments, which requires expected lifetime losses to be recognised on initial recognition of the receivables.

(n) Financial Instruments

Financial assets

Classification

The Group classifies financial assets as subsequently measured at amortised cost, fair value through other comprehensive income or fair value through profit or loss on the basis of its business model for managing the financial assets and the contractual cash flow characteristics of the financial asset.

Initial recognition and measurement

Trade receivables and debt securities issued are initially recognised when they originate and recorded at transaction price. The Group recognises financial assets (other than trade receivables and debt securities) when it becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument. All financial assets (excluding trade receivables that are recorded at transaction price) are recognised initially at fair value, plus in the case of financial assets not recorded at fair value through profit or loss (FVTPL), transaction costs that are attributable to the acquisition of the financial asset. However, trade receivables that do not contain a significant financing component are measured at transaction price.

Subsequent measurement

For the purpose of subsequent measurement, the financial assets are classified in three categories:

- Financial assets at Amortised cost

A financial asset is measured at amortised cost if both of the following conditions are met:

- the asset is held within a business model whose objective is to hold financial assets in order to collect contractual cash flows; and
- the contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding

After initial measurement, such financial assets are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest (EIR) method. Amortised cost is calculated by considering any discount or premium on acquisition and fees or costs that are an integral part of the EIR and reported as part of interest income in the Restated Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss. The losses if any, arising from impairment are recognised in the Restated Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss.

- Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss (FVTPL)

Financial assets at FVTPL include financial assets that either do not meet the criteria for amortised cost classification or are equity instruments held for trading or that meet certain conditions and are designated at FVTPL upon initial recognition. All derivative financial instruments also fall into this category, except for those designated and effective as hedging instruments, for which the hedge accounting requirements may apply. Assets in this category are measured at fair value with gains or losses recognised in the Restated Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss. The fair values of financial assets in this category are determined by reference to active market transactions or using a valuation technique where no active market exists.

- Financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income (FVOCI) – debt investment

A debt investment is measured is measured at FVOCI if both of the following conditions are met:

- the asset is held within a business model whose objective is achieved by both collecting contractual cash flows and selling financial assets; and
- the contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding

Clean Max Enviro Energy Solutions Limited (Formerly known as Clean Max Enviro Energy Solutions Private Limited)

Notes to the Restated Consolidated Financial Information

After initial measurement, such financial assets are subsequently measured at fair value. Interest income is recognised using the effective interest (EIR) method. The loss allowance is recognized in other comprehensive income and does not reduce the carrying value of the financial asset. On derecognition, gains and losses accumulated in OCI are reclassified to Restated Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss.

- Financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income (FVOCI) – equity investment
On initial recognition of an equity investment that is not held for trading, the Group may irrevocably elect to present subsequent changes in the investment's fair value in Other Comprehensive Income. This election is made on an investment-by-investment basis.

After initial measurement, such financial assets are subsequently measured at fair value. Dividends are recognised as income in Restated Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss unless the dividend clearly represents a recovery of part of the cost of the investment. Other net gains and losses are recognised in OCI and are not reclassified to Restated Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss.

Derecognition of financial asset

A financial asset (or, where applicable, a part of a financial asset) is primarily derecognised when:

- the rights to receive cash flows from the asset have expired, or
- the Group has transferred substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset, or
- the Group has neither transferred nor retained substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset, but has transferred control of the asset.

Financial liabilities

Classification

All financial liabilities as subsequently measured at amortised cost.

Initial recognition and measurement

All financial liabilities are recognised initially at fair value and, in the case of loans and borrowings and payables, net of directly attributable transaction costs.

Subsequent measurement

Borrowings

After initial recognition, interest-bearing borrowings are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the Effective Interest Rate (EIR) method. Gains and losses are recognised in the Restated Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss when the liabilities are derecognised. Amortised cost is calculated by taking into account any discount or premium on acquisition and transactions costs. The EIR amortisation is included as finance costs in the Restated Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss.

Derivative financial instruments

The Group uses derivative financial instruments such as foreign exchange forward contracts, interest rate swaps and Virtual Power Purchase Agreements (VPPA) to manage its exposure to foreign exchange risk, interest rate risk and price risk respectively. VPPAs are derivative instruments under which the Group receives the difference between fixed contracted prices and settled market prices and provides the counterparty with a contracted amount of environmental attributes generated by the renewable facility.

Derivative financial instruments (including embedded derivatives) are initially measured at fair value. Subsequent to initial recognition, derivatives are measured at fair value, and any gains or losses arising from changes in the fair value of derivatives are taken directly to Restated Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss immediately unless the derivative is designated and effective as a hedging instrument, in which event the timing of the recognition in Restated Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss depends on the nature of the hedging relationship and the nature of the hedged item. Derivatives are carried as financial assets when the fair value is positive and as financial liabilities when the fair value is negative.

Clean Max Enviro Energy Solutions Limited (Formerly known as Clean Max Enviro Energy Solutions Private Limited)

Cash flow hedge

Derivatives are held to hedge the uncertainty in timing or amount of future forecast cash flows on account of forecasted transactions and recognised assets and liabilities. Such derivatives are classified as being part of cash flow hedge relationships. For an effective hedge, gains and losses from changes in the fair value of derivatives are recognised in Other Comprehensive Income. Any ineffective elements of the hedge are recognised in the Restated Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss.

If the hedging instrument no longer meets the criteria for hedge accounting, then hedge accounting is discontinued prospectively. If the hedging instrument expires or is sold, terminated or exercised, the cumulative gain or loss on the hedging instrument recognised in cash flow hedge reserve till the period the hedge was effective remains in cash flow hedge reserve until the forecasted transaction occurs. The cumulative gain or loss previously recognised in the cash flow hedge reserve is transferred to the Restated Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss upon the occurrence of the related forecasted transaction.

Derecognition of financial liability

A financial liability is derecognised when the obligation under the liability is discharged or cancelled or expires. When an existing financial liability is replaced by another from the same lender on substantially different terms, or the terms of an existing liability are substantially modified, such an exchange or modification is treated as the derecognition of the original liability and the recognition of a new liability. The difference in the respective carrying amounts is recognised in the Restated Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss.

Offsetting of financial instruments

Financial assets and financial liabilities are offset and the net amount is reported in the balance sheet if there is a currently enforceable legal right to offset the recognised amounts and there is an intention to settle them on a net basis or to realise the assets and settle the liabilities simultaneously.

Share capital

Ordinary equity shares

Incremental costs directly attributable to the issue of ordinary equity shares and share options are recognised as a deduction from equity, net of any tax effects.

Fair value measurement

The Group's accounting policies and disclosures require the measurement of fair values for financial and non-financial assets and liabilities. The management regularly reviews significant unobservable inputs and valuation adjustments.

When measuring the fair value of a financial asset or a financial liability, the Group uses observable market data as far as possible. Fair values are categorised into different levels in a fair value hierarchy based on the inputs used in the valuation techniques as follows:

- Level 1: quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.
- Level 2: inputs other than quoted prices included in Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly (i.e. as prices) or indirectly (i.e. derived from prices).
- Level 3: inputs for the asset or liability that are not based on observable market data (Unobservable inputs).

Clean Max Enviro Energy Solutions Limited (Formerly known as Clean Max Enviro Energy Solutions Private Limited)

Notes to the Restated Consolidated Financial Information

If the inputs used to measure the fair value of an asset or a liability fall into different levels of the fair value hierarchy, then the fair value measurement is categorised in its entirety in the same level of the fair value hierarchy as the lowest level input that is significant to the entire measurement. The Group recognizes transfers between levels of the fair value hierarchy at the end of the reporting period during which the change has occurred.

(o) Cash and cash equivalents

The Group considers all highly liquid financial instruments, which are readily convertible into known amounts of cash that are subject to an insignificant risk of change in value and having original maturities of three months or less from the date of purchase, to be cash equivalents. Cash and cash equivalents consist of balances with banks which are unrestricted for withdrawal and usage.

For the purpose of the Restated Consolidated Statement of Cash Flows, cash and cash equivalents consist of cash and short-term deposits, as defined above.

(p) Inventories

Inventories are valued at cost or net realizable value on an item-by-Item basis., whichever is lower, cost being worked out on weighted average basis. Cost includes all charges for bringing the goods to their present location and condition.

Net realizable value represents the estimated selling price for inventories less all estimated costs of completion and costs necessary to make the sale.

(q) Leases:

The Group evaluates each contract or arrangement, whether it qualifies as lease as defined under Ind AS 116.

The Group assesses, whether the contract is, or contains, a lease. A contract is, or contains, a lease if the contract involves:

- (a) the use of an identified asset,
- (b) the right to obtain substantially all the economic benefits from use of the identified asset, and
- (c) the right to direct the use of the identified asset.

The Group as a lessee

Right to Use Asset

The Group at the inception of the lease contract recognizes a Right-of-Use (RoU) asset at cost and corresponding lease liability, except for leases with term of less than twelve months (short term) and low-value assets.

The cost of the right-of-use assets comprises the amount of the initial measurement of the lease liability, any lease payments made at or before the inception date of the lease plus any initial direct costs, less any lease incentives received. Subsequently, the right of use assets is measured at cost less any accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses, if any. The right-of-use assets is depreciated using the straight-line method from the commencement date over the shorter of lease term or useful life of right-of-use assets.

Category	Useful life
Office Buildings	1-4 years
Leasehold Land	25-30 years

Clean Max Enviro Energy Solutions Limited (Formerly known as Clean Max Enviro Energy Solutions Private Limited)

Notes to the Restated Consolidated Financial Information

The Group applies Ind AS 36 to determine whether a Right-of-Use asset is impaired and accounts for any identified impairment loss in the Restated Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss as described in the note (m).

Lease liabilities

For lease liabilities at inception, the Group measures the lease liability at the present value of the lease payments to be made over the lease term. The lease payments include fixed payments (including in substance fixed payments) less any lease incentives receivable, variable lease payments that depend on an index or a rate, and amounts expected to be paid under residual value guarantees. The lease payments also include the exercise price of a purchase option reasonably certain to be exercised by the Group and payments of penalties for terminating the lease, if the lease term reflects the Group exercising the option to terminate. Variable lease payments that do not depend on an index or a rate are recognised as expenses (unless they are incurred to produce inventories) in the period in which the event or condition that triggers the payment occurs. The lease payments are discounted using the interest rate implicit in the lease, if that rate is readily determined, if that rate is not readily determined, the lease payments are discounted using the incremental borrowing rate. After the commencement date, the amount of lease liabilities is increased to reflect the accretion of interest considering effective interest rate and reduced for the lease payments made.

The Group recognizes the amount of the re-measurement of lease liability as an adjustment to the right-of-use assets. Where the carrying amount of the right-of-use assets is reduced to zero and there is a further reduction in the measurement of the lease liability, the Group recognizes any remaining amount of the re-measurement in the Restated Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss.

(r) Provisions, contingent liabilities and contingent asset

A provision is recognised when the Group has a present legal or constructive obligation as a result of past events and it is probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation in respect of which a reliable estimate can be made. Provisions (excluding retirement benefits) are discounted to their present value at a pre-tax rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the liability and are determined based on the best estimate required to settle the obligation at the Balance Sheet date. These are reviewed at each Balance Sheet date and adjusted to reflect the current best estimates. The unwinding of the discount is recognised as finance cost.

Contingent liabilities are disclosed for possible obligations which will be confirmed only by future events not wholly within the control of the Group; or present obligations arising from past events where it is not probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation or a reliable estimate of the amount of the obligation cannot be made.

Contingent assets are not recognised in the Restated Consolidated Financial Information. However, the same are disclosed in the Restated Consolidated Financial Information where an inflow of economic benefit is probable.

(s) Segment Reporting

An operating segment is a component of the Group that engages in business activities from which it may earn revenues and incur expenses, including revenues and expenses that relate to transactions with any of the Group's other components, and for which discrete financial information is available. Operating segments are identified based on the manner in which the chief operating decision-maker (CODM) decides about the resource allocation and reviews performance. The Managing Director of the Parent Company have been identified as the CODM.

Segment revenue, segment expenses, segment assets and segment liabilities have been identified to segments on the basis of their relationship to the operating activities of the segment.

Clean Max Enviro Energy Solutions Limited (Formerly known as Clean Max Enviro Energy Solutions Private Limited)

Notes to the Restated Consolidated Financial Information

Segment revenue resulting from transactions with other business segments is accounted on the basis of transfer price agreed between the segments. Such transfer prices are either determined to yield a desired margin or agreed on a negotiated basis.

Revenue, expenses, assets and liabilities which relate to the Group as a whole and are not allocable to segments on reasonable basis have been included under “unallocated revenue / expenses / assets/ liabilities”.

(t) Earnings per share

Basic earnings per equity share has been computed by dividing the net profit or loss for the reporting period attributable to equity shareholders by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the reporting period.

Diluted earnings per share is computed by dividing the profit / (loss) after tax as adjusted for dividend, interest and other charges to expense or income (net of any attributable taxes) relating to the dilutive potential equity shares, by the weighted average number of equity shares considered for deriving basic earnings per share and the weighted average number of equity shares which could have been issued on conversion of all dilutive potential equity shares. If potential equity shares converted into equity shares increases the earnings per share, then they are treated as anti- dilutive and anti-dilutive earning per share is computed.

The weighted average number of equity shares outstanding is adjusted for bonus issue, bonus element in a rights issue to existing shareholders, share split and reverse share split (consolidation of shares).

(u) Earnings before interest, tax, depreciation, impairment and amortization (EBITDA)

The Group presents EBITDA in the Restated Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss; this is not specifically required by Ind AS 1. The term EBITDA is not defined in Ind AS. Ind AS compliant Schedule III allows companies to present line items, sub-line items and sub-totals as an addition or substitution on the face of the financial statements when such presentation is relevant to an understanding of the Group's financial position or performance to or to cater to industry/sector-specific disclosure requirements or when required for compliance with the amendments to the Companies Act or under the Indian Accounting Standards.

Measurement of EBITDA

Accordingly, the Group has elected to present EBITDA as a separate line item on the face of the Restated Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss. In its measurement, the Group does not include exceptional items, depreciation, impairment and amortisation expenses, finance costs, share of profit from joint ventures and associate and income tax expense.

(v) Business Combination

In determining whether a particular set of activities and assets is a business, the Group assesses whether the set of assets and activities acquired includes, at a minimum, an input and substantive process and whether the acquired set has the ability to produce outputs. The Group has an option to apply a ‘concentration test’ that permits a simplified assessment of whether an acquired set of activities and assets is not a business. The optional concentration test is met if substantially all of the fair value of the gross assets acquired is concentrated in a single identifiable asset or group of similar identifiable assets.

Acquisitions of businesses are accounted for using the acquisition method. The consideration transferred in a business combination is measured at fair value, which is calculated as the sum of the acquisition date fair value of assets transferred by the Group, liabilities incurred by the Group to the former owners of the acquiree and the equity interest issued by the Group in exchange of the control of the acquiree. Acquisition related costs are recognised in Restated Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss as incurred except if related to the issue of debt or equity securities.

Clean Max Enviro Energy Solutions Limited (Formerly known as Clean Max Enviro Energy Solutions Private Limited)

Purchase consideration paid in excess / shortfall of the fair value of identifiable assets and liabilities including contingent liabilities and contingent assets, is recognised as goodwill / capital reserve respectively.

Business combination involving entities or businesses under common control are accounted for using the pooling of interest method. Under pooling of interest method, the assets and liabilities of the combining entities / business are reflected at their carrying value. The difference if any, between the consideration paid by the acquirer and the amount of share capital of the transferor is transferred to capital reserve.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities and assets or liabilities related to employee benefits arrangements are recognised and measured in accordance with Ind AS 12 "Income Taxes" and Ind AS 19 "Employee Benefits" respectively.

Potential tax effects of temporary differences and carry forwards of an acquiree that exist at the acquisition date or arise as a result of the acquisition are accounted in accordance with Ind AS 12.

Goodwill arising on an acquisition of a business is carried at cost as established at the date of acquisition of the business less accumulated impairment losses, if any. For the purposes of impairment testing, goodwill is tested at the independent cash generating unit. A cash-generating unit to which goodwill has been allocated is tested for impairment annually, or more frequently when there is an indication that the unit may be impaired. If the recoverable amount of the cash-generating unit is less than its carrying amount, the impairment loss is allocated first to reduce the carrying amount of any goodwill allocated to the unit and then to the other assets of the unit pro rata based on the carrying amount of each asset in the unit. Any impairment loss for goodwill is recognised directly in Restated Consolidated Statement of Profit or Loss. An impairment loss recognised for goodwill is not reversed in subsequent periods.

(w) Operating Cycle

All assets and liabilities have been classified as current or non-current as per the Group's normal operating cycle and other criteria set out in Schedule III to the Companies Act 2013. Terms of a liability that could, at the option of the counterparty, result in its settlement by the issue of equity instruments do not affect its classification.

Based on the nature of products / activities of the Group and the normal time between acquisition of assets and their realization in cash or cash equivalents the Group has determined its operating cycle as twelve months for the purpose of classification of its assets and liabilities as current and non-current.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are classified as non-current assets and liabilities. Advance tax paid is classified as non-current assets.

(x) Borrowing Cost

Borrowing costs directly attributable to the acquisition or construction of qualifying assets, which are assets that necessarily take a substantial period of time to get ready for their intended use or sale, are added to the cost of those assets, until such time as the assets are substantially ready for their intended use or sale.

All other borrowing costs are recognised in Restated Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss in the period in which they are incurred.

Clean Max Enviro Energy Solutions Limited (Formerly known as Clean Max Enviro Energy Solutions Private Limited)

Notes to the Restated Consolidated Financial Information

The Group suspends capitalization of borrowing costs during extended periods in which it suspends active development of a qualifying asset.

The entity determines the amount of borrowing costs eligible for capitalization as the actual borrowing costs incurred on that borrowing during the period less any interest income earned on temporary investment of specific borrowings pending their expenditure on qualifying assets, to the extent that an entity borrows funds specifically for the purpose of obtaining a qualifying asset. If any specific borrowing remains outstanding after the related asset is ready for its intended use or sale, that borrowing becomes part of the funds that an entity borrows generally when calculating the capitalization rate on general borrowings. In case if the entity borrows generally and uses the funds for obtaining a qualifying asset, borrowing costs eligible for capitalization are determined by applying a capitalization rate to the expenditure on that asset.

(y) Prepaid Common Infrastructure Facility Charges

Prepaid common infrastructure facility charges represent upfront payments made to secure the right to use the common infrastructure facilities, where ownership remains with a third party. These payments are recognised as assets at the amount paid on the date the right is obtained and amortised over the period of use.

(z) Redemption liability (Non-controlling interests (“NCI”))

The Parent Company is writer of the put option to the non-controlling interest (NCI) shareholders in specific subsidiaries to acquire the entire shareholding at a predetermined fixed exercise price where the right to exercise is with NCI shareholders. As a result of this contractual commitment with the Parent Company, NCI shareholders do not have present access to the returns associated with the subsidiaries. The present value of the amount payable under this contract is recorded under financial liability, reflecting the Parent Company's obligation to purchase the shares of the NCI shareholders. The difference between the present value and the amount paid by NCI has been recognised under Other equity.

(aa) Critical accounting judgements and key sources of estimation uncertainty

The preparation of Restated Consolidated Financial Information in conformity with the recognition and measurement principles of Ind AS requires management to make judgments, estimates and assumptions, that effect the reported balances of assets and liabilities, disclosures relating to contingent liabilities/contingent assets as at the date of the Restated Consolidated Financial Information and the reported amounts of income and expenses for the years presented. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

These estimates and associated assumptions are based on historical experiences and various other factors that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances. The estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revision to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimate is revised if the revision affect only that period, or in the period of the revision and future periods if the revision affects both current and future period.

In particular, information about significant areas of estimation, uncertainty and critical judgments in applying accounting policies that have the most significant effect on the amounts recognised in the Restated Consolidated Financial Information pertain to:

- Useful lives of property, plant and equipment and other intangible assets [refer note 2 and 4(b)]: The Group reviews the useful life of property, plant and equipment and other intangible assets at the end of each reporting period. This reassessment may result in change in depreciation and amortization expense in future periods.

Clean Max Enviro Energy Solutions Limited (Formerly known as Clean Max Enviro Energy Solutions Private Limited)

Notes to the Restated Consolidated Financial Information

- Impairment of non-financial assets including ROU asset [refer note 2, 3, 4(a), 4(b) and 5(a)]: The Group estimates the value in use of the cash generating unit (CGU) based on future cash flows after considering current economic conditions and trends, estimated future operating results, growth rate and anticipated future economic and regulatory conditions. The estimated cash flows are developed using internal forecasts. The cash flows are discounted using a suitable discount rate in order to calculate the present value.
- Impairment of investments [refer note 6]: The Group reviews its carrying value of investments annually, or more frequently when there is indication for impairment. If the recoverable amount is less than its carrying amount, the impairment loss is accounted for.
- Defined benefit plans [refer note 42.2]: The cost of the defined benefit plans and the present value of the defined benefit obligation are based on actuarial valuation using the projected unit credit method. An actuarial valuation involves making various assumptions that may differ from actual developments in the future. These include the determination of the discount rate, future salary increases and mortality rates. Due to the complexities involved in the valuation and its long-term nature, a defined benefit obligation is highly sensitive to changes in these assumptions. All assumptions are reviewed at each reporting date.
- Impairment of financial assets [refer note 38.7]: The impairment provision for financial assets (other than trade receivables) are based on assumptions of risk of default and expected loss rates. The Group makes judgements about these assumptions for selecting the inputs to the impairment calculation, based on the Group's past history, existing market conditions as well as forward looking estimates at the end of each reporting period.

Trade receivables are stated at their transaction values as reduced by appropriate allowances for estimated irrecoverable amounts which are based on the aging of the receivable balances and historical experiences. Individual trade receivables are written off when management deems them not be collectible.

- Costs to complete for Construction contracts [refer note 11]: The Group's management estimates the costs to complete for each project for the purpose of revenue recognition and recognition of anticipated losses on projects, if any. In the process of calculating the cost to complete, management conducts regular and systematic reviews of actual results and future projections with comparison against budget. This process requires monitoring controls including financial and operational controls and identifying major risks facing the Group and developing and implementing initiatives to manage those risks. The Group's management is confident that the costs to complete the project are fairly estimated.
- Share based payment [refer note 43]: Estimating fair value for share-based payment transactions requires determination of the most appropriate valuation model, which depends on the terms and conditions of the grant. This estimate also requires determination of the most appropriate inputs to the valuation model including the expected life of the share option, volatility and dividend yield and making assumptions about them. For the measurement of the fair value of equity-settled transactions with employees at the grant date, the Group uses Binomial model.
- Evaluation of control / joint control / significant influence: The Group makes assumptions, when assessing whether it exercises control, joint control or significant influence over entities in which it holds less than 100 percent of the voting rights. These assumptions are made based on the contractual rights with the other shareholders, relevant facts and circumstances which indicate that the Group has power over the potential subsidiary or that joint control exists. Changes to contractual arrangements or facts and circumstances are monitored and are evaluated to determine whether they have a potential impact on the assessment as to whether the Group is exercising control over its investment.
- Recognition of deferred tax asset: The deferred tax assets in respect of brought forward business losses is recognised based on reasonable certainty of the projected profitability, determined on the basis of approved business plans, to the extent that sufficient taxable income will be available to absorb the brought forward business losses. The Group reviews the carrying amount of deferred tax assets at the end of each reporting period. The policy has been detailed in Note (i) above.

Clean Max Enviro Energy Solutions Limited (Formerly known as Clean Max Enviro Energy Solutions Private Limited)

Notes to the Restated Consolidated Financial Information

(bb) Exceptional items

An item of income or expense which by its size, type and incidence requires disclosure in order to improve an understanding of the performance of the Group is treated as an exceptional item and the same is disclosed in Restated Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss and in the notes forming part of the Restated Consolidated Financial Information.

Note 1.4 Recent Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS)

Ministry of Corporate Affairs (MCA) notifies new standards or amendments to the existing standards under Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules as issued from time to time.

In May 2025, MCA notified amendments to Ind AS 21 - The Effects of Changes in Foreign Exchange Rates, applicable w.e.f. April 1, 2025.

In August 2025, MCA notified the following amendments to:

- Ind AS 1, Presentation of Financial Statements, applicable w.e.f. April 1, 2025 - The amendment relates to classification of liabilities as current or non-current and non-current liabilities with covenants. In the context of classifying a liability as current, it removes the requirement of existence of a right to defer settlement for at least 12 months after the reporting date and instead requires that the said right should exist on the reporting date and have substance. The amendment also introduces guidance on classification of liabilities with covenants.
- Ind AS 7, Statement of Cash Flows and Ind AS 107, Financial Instruments - Disclosures, applicable w.e.f. April 1, 2025 – The amendment in Ind AS 7 requires to inform users of financial statements of the existence of supplier finance arrangements and explain the nature of the arrangements, the carrying amount of liabilities and the range of payment due dates. Ind AS 107 has been amended to add supplier finance arrangements as a factor that may cause concentration of liquidity risk.
- Ind AS 12, International Tax Reform – Pillar Two Model Rules applicable immediately - The amendments provide a temporary mandatory relief from deferred tax accounting for top-up tax and disclose that they have applied the relief. This relief is immediate and applies retrospectively. The amendments also require companies to provide new disclosures to compensate for potential loss of information resulting from the relief. Such disclosures are to be provided for annual reporting periods beginning on or after April 1, 2025.

The Group has reviewed the amendments and based on its evaluation has determined that it does not have any significant impact in its financial statements.

Note 1.5 New and amended standards issued but not effective

For the six months period ended 30th September, 2025, MCA has not notified any new standards or amendments to the existing standards applicable to the Group.

(ii) The Parent Company, subsidiaries and joint ventures incorporated in India are not holding any benami property under the Benami Transactions (Prohibition) Act, 1988 (45 of 1988).

(iii) The Group and its joint ventures and associate makes an assessment for impairment of Property, Plant and Equipment when facts and circumstances indicate that carrying values of such assets may not be recoverable. When evaluating for impairment, the carrying value of the asset is compared to the asset's estimated future discounted cash flows. The trigger for impairment occurs if the estimated discounted future cash flows are less than the carrying value of the asset. The value of impairment is determined by comparing the carrying value of the asset to the asset's recoverable value and recognize an impairment charge when the asset's carrying value exceeds its estimated recoverable value. The recoverable value of the asset is estimated using a discounted cash flow model based on forecasted future revenues and operating costs, using internal projections. The impairment test is performed at the independent cash generating unit (CGU) level.

Depreciation includes impairment of Rs. Nil (30th September, 2024: Nil, 31st March 2025: Nil, 31st March 2024: Rs. 24.99 million, 31st March 2023: Rs. 40.53 million).

Footnote:

As at 30th September, 2025:

Goodwill is assessed for impairment at each reporting date and whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of a cash-generating unit (CGU) may not be recoverable. The recoverable amount of a CGU is determined as the higher of its fair value less costs of disposal and its value-in-use.

For the purpose of goodwill impairment testing, Cleanmax Alpha LeaseCo FZCO is identified as the CGU. The recoverable amount of goodwill is determined based on the value-in-use, which is calculated using projected future cash flows. These projections incorporate current economic conditions, anticipated future operating performance, and growth expectations. The Group applies the discounted cash flow (DCF) method to estimate the value-in-use.

If the recoverable amount of the CGU is lower than its carrying amount, the resulting impairment loss is first applied to reduce the carrying amount of goodwill allocated to the CGU. Any remaining loss is then allocated to other assets of the CGU on a pro-rata basis, according to their carrying amounts.

The Group conducted an impairment assessment for the six months period ended 30 September, 2025. The key assumptions used in the value-in-use calculation include:

- Weighted Average Cost of Capital (WACC)* : 10%

- Projected Cash Flows : Based on expected inflows from executed Power Purchase Agreements (PPAs), as well as contracts anticipated to be executed over the next 2–3 years.

*Weighted Average Cost of Capital (WACC) for the Group = Risk free return + (Market risk premium x Beta)

The Group has performed sensitivity analysis around the base assumptions and has concluded that there are no reasonably possible changes to key assumptions that would cause the carrying amount of a CGU to exceed its recoverable amount.

As at 31st March, 2025:

Goodwill is tested for impairment on an annual basis and whenever there is an indication that the recoverable amount of a cash generating unit (CGUs) is less than its carrying amount. The recoverable amount is determined based on value in use for the entire Group which is regarded as the CGU for impairment testing. Value-in-use is determined based on future cash flows, after considering economic conditions, estimated future operating results and growth rates. The Group uses discounted cash flows method to determine the recoverable amount.

The Group has performed its annual impairment test for year ended 31st March, 2025 and no Goodwill impairment was deemed necessary. The goodwill on business combination is created during the year on 1st October, 2024 based on underlying valuations. The said goodwill is not materially sensitive to any change in underlying assumptions.

(i) Total Debt is defined as sum of current & non-current borrowings (including current maturities)

(ii) Capital is defined as Equity share capital, other equity including non controlling interest and excluding cash flow hedge reserve.

In order to achieve this overall objective, the Group's capital management, amongst other things, aims to ensure that it meets financial covenants attached to the interest-bearing loans and borrowings that define capital structure requirements. Breaches in meeting the financial covenants would permit the bank to immediately call loans and borrowings. The financial covenant for any interest-bearing loans and borrowings is tested on annual basis as per the contractual agreements with lenders.

In FY 2023-24 and FY 2024-25, Clean Max Maximus Private Limited, one of the Subsidiaries failed to maintain the financial covenants as required under the financing agreements with total outstanding borrowings of ₹4,290.63 million in Fiscal 2025 and ₹3,822.27 million in FY 2023-24 with one of its lenders. The respective lender had provided waiver for FY 2023-24 and FY 2024-25. As at 30th September, 2025, the lender has confirmed that there is no event of default, hence the borrowings has been classified as non-current in the Restated Consolidated Financial Information.

No changes were made in the objectives, policies or processes for managing capital during each reporting period.

The management assessed that the fair value of the cash and cash equivalents, bank balances other than cash and cash equivalents, loans, trade receivables, trade payables, lease liabilities, current borrowings, other financial assets carried at amortised cost reasonably approximate their carrying amounts. The fair value of non-current financial assets, non current borrowings and other financial liabilities is estimated by discounting future cash flows using current rates applicable to instruments with similar terms, currency, credit risk and remaining maturities which reasonably approximate their carrying amounts.

38.4 Financial Risk Management objectives

The management of the Group monitors and manages the financial risks relating to the operations of the Group on a continuous basis. These risks include market risk (including currency risk, interest rate risk and other price risk), credit risk and liquidity risk.

38.5 Market Risk

Derivatives and hedging

The Group is exposed to electricity price risk, currency fluctuations on foreign currency borrowings and interest rate fluctuations on floating rate foreign currency borrowings.

To reduce its exposure to movements, the Group uses various risk management techniques including the use of derivative instruments which includes forward contracts, interest rate swaps and Environmental Attributes Purchase Agreements (i.e. Virtual Power Purchase Agreements (VPPAs)). VPPAs are derivative instruments under which the Group receives the difference between fixed contracted prices per megawatt-hour (MWh) and settled market prices and provides the counterparty with environmental attributes generated by the renewable facility.

Cash flow hedges

The Group has applied hedge accounting on VPPAs (to hedge the variability in forecasted cash flows arising from fluctuations in the Market Clearing Price (MCP) of electricity under the VPPA) and interest rate swaps (to hedge the variability in interest cash flows arising from fluctuations in Secured Overnight Financing rate (SOFR) on foreign currency borrowings) derivatives as per Ind AS 109 (Financial Instruments) and these are accounted for as Cash Flow Hedges.

Hedge effectiveness is determined at the inception of the hedge relationship, and through periodic prospective effectiveness assessments to ensure that an economic relationship exists between the hedged item and hedging instrument, including whether the hedging instrument is expected to offset changes in cash flows of hedged items.

Interest rate swaps - The Group has established a hedge ratio of 1:1 for the hedging relationship as the underlying risk of the interest rate swaps are identical to the hedged risk component. Hedge item and the hedging instruments have economic relationship as the terms of the interest rate swap contracts match with the terms of hedge items.

VPPAs - The Group assesses whether the derivative designated in each hedging relationship is expected to be and has been effective in offsetting changes in cash flows of the hedged item using the hypothetical derivative method. The Group has assessed the effectiveness using the Dollar Offset method and the ratio of the changes in fair value between the designated hedging instrument and hypothetical derivative is 100%.

At 30 September, 2025, the Group held the following instruments to hedge exposures to changes in interest rates.

	Maturity
	1-6 months	6- 12 months	More than one year
Interest rate risk
Interest rate swaps

The amounts relating to items designated as hedging instruments and hedge ineffectiveness were as follows.

Foreign Currency Sensitivity Analysis

The Group is exposed to US Dollar and Euro. Transactions in other foreign currency is with group companies and does not have any significant exposure.

The following table details the Group's sensitivity to a 5% increase and decrease in the Rupee against USD and Euro. 5% is a sensitivity rate used when reporting foreign currency internally to the key management personnel and represents management's assessment of the reasonably possible changes in the foreign exchange rates. The sensitivity analysis includes only outstanding foreign currency denominated monetary items and adjusts their translation at the period end for a 5% change in the foreign currency rates. A positive number below indicates an increase in profit or equity where the Rupee strengthens 5% against the relevant currency. For a 5% weakening of the Rupee against the relevant currency, there would be a comparable impact on the profit or equity, and the balances below would be negative.

38.7 Credit risk management

Credit risk refers to the risk that the counter party will default on its contractual obligations resulting in financial loss to the Group. Credit risk arises primarily from financial assets such as trade receivable, bank balances other than cash and cash equivalents, mutual funds and other receivables.

Credit is extended only after due approvals and evaluation in terms of the Credit Policy applicable for such sale. The process of extending credit approval, takes into account various factors such as publicly available financial information, market feedback, and past business patterns etc. Many of the Group's customers have been transacting since inception and the incidence of bad debts has been very low. Such credit limits extended to trade receivables are monitored by the Board of Directors and protective action are initiated to avoid a default. In view of the short nature of its trade receivables, the Group makes provision for credit risk on an individual basis, if any. Individual customer credit limits are imposed based on relevant factors such as market feedback, business potential and past records on selective basis. In addition, the Group uses practical expedient for computing the expected credit loss allowance for trade receivables based on a provision matrix. The provision matrix takes into account historical credit loss experience and adjusted for forward-looking information. The expected credit loss allowance is based on the ageing of the days the receivables are due and the rates as given in the provision matrix.

Further, the Group has given loans to its joint ventures and associate for which credit risk has not increased significantly during the period/year. All the financial assets other than mentioned above i.e. security deposits and other receivables are considered to have low credit risk as the counter parties have strong capacity to meet its cash flow obligations as and when due. Credit risk arising from contract assets i.e. unbilled revenue and amount due from customer under construction contracts, are considered to have low credit risk as the counter parties have strong capacity to meet its cash flow obligations as and when due.

Credit risk arising from other balance with bank is limited and there is no collateral held against these because the counter parties are bank and recognised financial institutions with high credit ratings.

Credit risk arising from mutual fund is limited because the counter parties are recognised fund houses with high credit ratings.

Refer note 35(a) for reconciliation of expected credit loss allowance.

38.8 Liquidity risk management

Ultimate responsibility for liquidity risk management rests with the Board of directors of the Parent Company, which has established an appropriate liquidity risk management framework for the management of the Group and its joint ventures and associate's short-term, medium-term and long-term funding and liquidity management requirements. The Group and its joint ventures and associate manages its funds from internal accruals, borrowings and fund raising through equity. The liquidity risk is managed by utilising banking facilities and by matching the maturity profiles of financial assets and liabilities.

As at six months period ended 30th September, 2025, the current liabilities have exceeded the current assets by Rs 10,024.99 million. Given the nature of its business and based on current overall business plan of the the Group and its joint ventures which includes realisation of predicated cash flows from operations (including cashflows to be generated on sale of power from operational as well as contracted, under construction capacity both of which are backed by long term offtake PPAs and sale of projects under construction), the sanctioned undrawn loan facilities from various lenders and the roll forward and refinance options available to optimise working capital limits, and inflow on account of sale of non-controlling interest to third party investor, the Board of Directors have concluded on the ability of the the Group and its joint ventures to generate sufficient future cashflows to be able to meet its obligations, as and when due, in the foreseeable future.

Maturities of financial liabilities:

The following tables detail the Group's remaining contractual maturity for its financial liabilities with agreed repayment periods. The tables have been drawn up based on the undiscounted cash flows of financial liabilities based on the earliest date on which the Group can be required to pay.

38.9 Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates. The Group and its joint ventures and associate's exposure to the risk of changes in market interest rates relates primarily to the Group and its joint ventures and associate's non-current debt obligations with floating interest rates.

The Group and its joint ventures and associate uses interest rate swaps to hedge the variability in interest cash flows attributable to movements in interest rates arising from foreign currency borrowings. The Group applies a hedge ratio of 1:1. The Group determines the existence of an economic relationship between the hedging instrument and hedged item based on the reference interest rates, tenors, repricing dates and maturities and the notional or par amounts.

In these hedge relationships, the main sources of ineffectiveness are:

- the effect of the counterparty's and the Group's own credit risk on the fair value of the swaps, which is not reflected in the change in the fair value of the hedged cash flows attributable to the change in interest rates; and
- differences in repricing dates between the swaps and the borrowings.

Cash flow sensitivity analysis for variable-rate instruments

A reasonably possible change of 50 basis points in interest rates at the reporting date would have increased/(decreased) equity and profit or loss by the amounts shown below. This analysis assumes that all other variables remain constant.

Particulars	For the six months period ended 30th September, 2025	For the six months period ended 30th September, 2024	For the year ended 31st March, 2025	For the year ended 31st March, 2024	For the year ended 31st March, 2023

Decrease in 50 basis points	415.24	287.30	345.70	238.45	159.85

Increase in 50 basis points	(415.24)	(287.30)	(345.70)	(238.45)	(159.85)
Decrease in 50 basis points	415.24	287.30	345.70	238.45	159.85

The period/year end balances are not necessarily representative of the average debt outstanding during the period/year.

Fair value sensitivity analysis for fixed-rate instruments

The Group and its joint ventures and associate does not have any fixed-rate financial assets or financial liabilities at FVTPL and the Group and its joint ventures and associate does not designate any derivatives as hedging instruments under fair value hedge accounting. Therefore, a change in interest rates at the reporting date would not affect profit or loss.

Note 42: Employee benefits

In accordance with Ind AS - 19 Employee Benefits, specified under Section 133 of the Companies Act, 2013 the following disclosures are made:

42.1 The Group has recognised Rs. 11.92 million (30th September, 2024; Rs. 8.44 million, 31st March, 2025; Rs. 20.15 million, 31st March, 2024; Rs. 15.28 million, 31st March, 2023; Rs. 11.59 million) for Provident Fund contributions in the Restated Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss. The contributions payable to these plans by the Group are at rates specified in the rules of the schemes.

42.2 Defined benefit plans:

The Group has an unfunded gratuity plan for qualifying employees. The benefit payable is calculated as per the Payment of Gratuity Act. The benefit vests upon completion of five years of continuous service and once vested it is payable to employees on retirement or on termination of employment. In case of death while in service, the gratuity is payable irrespective of vesting.

Gratuity amount is derived as 15/26 * Last drawn basic salary * Number of completed years.

Actuarial gains and losses in respect of defined benefit plans are recognised in the Restated Consolidated Financial Information through other comprehensive income.

Interest risk

A decrease in the bond interest rate will increase the plan liability.

Longevity risk

The present value of defined benefit plan liability is calculated by reference to the best estimate of the mortality of plan participants both during and after their employment. An increase in the life expectancy of the plan participants will increase the plan's liability.

Salary risk

The present value of the defined benefit plan liability is calculated by reference to the future salaries of plan participants. As such, an increase in the salary of the plan participants will increase the plan's liability.

The following table set out the unfunded status of the defined benefit schemes and the amount recognised in Restated Consolidated Financial Information.

Sensitivity Analysis

Gratuity is a lump sum plan and the cost of providing these benefits is typically less sensitive to small changes in demographic assumptions. The key actuarial assumptions to which the benefit obligation results are particularly sensitive to are discount rate and future salary escalation rate. The following tables summarizes the impact on the reported defined benefit obligation at the end of the reporting period arising on account of an increase or decrease in the reported assumption by 100 basis points. These sensitivities have been calculated to show the movement in defined benefit obligation in isolation and assuming there are no other changes in market conditions at the accounting date. There have been no changes from the previous periods in the methods and assumptions used in preparing the sensitivity analysis.

Notes to the Restated Consolidated Financial Information

(Currency: Amount in ₹ million, unless otherwise stated)

Note 50

Deferred tax asset of Rs. 10,420.69 million (30th September 2024: Rs. 7254.82 million, 31st March 2024: Rs. 9,220.26 million, 31st March 2024: Rs. 8,683.57 million, 31st March 2023: Rs. 3,443.50 million) has been recognised by the Group on unabsorbed depreciation and unused business tax losses.

The recoverability of the deferred tax assets has been assessed based on:

- Internal budgets, profit forecasts prepared by management,
- applying tax principles to those forecasts; and
- following the methodology required by Ind AS 12 – Income Taxes.

Based on the assessments as above, the management determines that deferred tax assets created on unused tax losses (business losses and unabsorbed depreciation) should reverse well within the statutory time limit. These losses can be fully set-off against future taxable profits earned by the respective Companies/LLPs in the Group, and accordingly based on the reasonable certainty that sufficient future taxable income would be generated considering the size of the Company/LLPs, its growth trajectory and past performance history during normal times, appropriate amount of deferred tax asset has been created during the period. The management will continue to monitor and review these assets based on the profit forecasts in future.

Deferred tax asset amounting to Rs. 33.76 million, Rs. 25.02 million, Rs. 36.17 million, Rs. 25.02 million and Rs. 16.66 million as at 30th September, 2025, 30th September, 2024, 31st March, 2025, 31st March, 2024 and 31st March 2023 respectively in respect of unused tax losses have not been recognised by the Group. The total tax loss carry forwards of Rs. 134.11 million, Rs. 99.43 million, Rs. 143.70 million, Rs. 99.43 million, Rs. 66.21 million as at 30th September, 2025, 30th September, 2024, 31st March, 2025, 31st March, 2024 and 31st March, 2023 respectively, relates to certain subsidiaries on which deferred tax asset has not been recognised by the Group, because there is a lack of reasonable certainty that these subsidiaries may generate future taxable profits. Deferred tax assets on unused tax losses have been recognised by certain subsidiaries to the extent of profits arising from the reversal of existing taxable temporary differences.

Deferred income tax liabilities are recognised for all taxable temporary differences except in respect of taxable temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries where the timing of the reversal of the temporary difference are not entirely within the control of the Parent Company. Accordingly, deferred income tax liabilities on cumulative earnings of subsidiaries amounting to Rs. 1,258.23 million, Rs. 975.59 million, Rs. 1,338.76 million, Rs. 618.02 million and Rs. 283.06 million as at 30th September, 2025, 30th September, 2024, 31st March, 2025, 31st March, 2024 and 31st March, 2023 respectively has not been recognised.

Overview

We are India’s largest commercial and industrial (“C&I”) renewable energy provider as of July 31, 2025, according to the CRISIL Report. With 15 years of experience since our inception in 2010, we specialize in delivering Net Zero and decarbonization solutions, including supplying renewable power and offering energy services and carbon credit solutions to customers across data centres, AI and technology industries (“Technology customers”); and C&I enterprises across a range of sectors, including infrastructure, cement, steel, industrial manufacturing, FMCG, pharmaceuticals, real estate, and global capability centres (“Conventional C&I customers”). Our expertise spans across providing energy contracting, engineering, procurement and construction (“EPC”) services, and operation and maintenance (“O&M”) services of renewable energy plants including solar, wind and hybrid plants, within our customer’s premises (“Onsite”) and within CleanMax-developed renewable energy (solar, wind and hybrid) farms (“Offsite”).

Our Business Model

Revenue

We offer a broad range of renewable energy offerings to our customers across geographies through our two business segments, comprising: (i) Renewable Energy Power Sales Segment; and (ii) Renewable Energy Services Segment. The following table provides our revenue from our two segments for the periods indicated:

Particulars	For the six months ended September 30,				Fiscal
	2025		2024		2025		2024		2023
	(in ₹ million)	(% of Revenue from operations)	(in ₹ million)	(% of Revenue from operations)	(in ₹ million)	(% of Revenue from operations)	(in ₹ million)	(% of Revenue from operations)	(in ₹ million)	(% of Revenue from operations)

Revenue from Operations	9,329.53	100%	6,764.66	100%	14,957.01	100.00%	13,898.37	100.00%	9,295.82	100.00%

* The unallocable revenue pertains to pass-through component of tariff towards transmission charges recovered from customer.

- Renewable Energy Power Sales Segment: we earn revenue primarily from the sale of electricity generated at our renewable energy plants to customers under long-term Power Purchase Agreements (“PPAs”) and Energy

Attribute Purchase Agreements (“EAPAs”) across a range of offerings. Our agreements have a weighted average term of 22.85 years and the tariff is majorly fixed for the term of the agreement – demonstrating consistency in revenue. This is reported as “sale of power” in our statement of profit and loss. The offerings under this segment include (i) Onsite Solar, which are solar power plants that are located within customer’s premises (“Onsite Solar”); (ii) Offsite which includes the sale of power from power plants that we own and operate. Our Offsite business supports STU-Connected plants and CTU-Connected plants. For more details, see “Our Business - Overview” starting on page 293.

- Renewable Energy Services Segment: we earn revenue primarily from providing services to customers to enable them to achieve their Net Zero aspirations. These services include providing Capex Services such as designing, developing, constructing and maintaining renewable energy plants owned by customers. Our EPC contracts are fixed price, and short-term contracts that have a term of less than one year. Revenue under EPC contracts is earned on a completion basis, that is, we recognize revenue upon completion of specific stages of the project. Revenue from Capex Services is typically reported as “revenue from projects” in our statement of profit and loss. We also earn revenue from providing operations and maintenance (“O&M”) services to our customers that primarily avail our Capex Services. We also earn revenue from common infra services – that is, when customers use the common infrastructure at our renewable energy farms for operating the renewable energy plants that we have constructed and owned by them.

In addition, we earn revenue from providing Carbon Services, such as I-RECs and carbon removal credits. I-RECs from plants owned and operated by us will form part of Renewable Energy Power Sales Segment, and all others forms part of the Renewable Energy Services Segment.

For more details on each of our businesses, see “Our Business” starting on page 293.

Expenses

Our major expenses include (i) cost of materials consumed and cost of services and purchase of traded goods, (ii) employee benefits expenses, (iii) finance cost, and (iv) depreciation, amortization and impairment expenses.

- cost of materials consumed and cost of services and purchase of traded goods: this expense primarily relates to the cost for procuring materials and services for (i) Capex Services, and (ii) for operating and maintaining our own renewable energy plants. Our major materials and parts include wind turbines and solar modules. This expense is more relevant for the Renewable Energy Services Segment where we are required to procure parts and materials for the services we provide. We provide Capex Services to customers based on their needs. Consequently, while the overall contracted capacity increases year on year, the proportion of customers willing to incur a capital expenditure and opt for Capex Services may vary. As a result, the gross margin of the Renewable Energy Services Segment varies year on year.

Due to a mix of Renewable Energy Power Sales and Renewable Energy Services, our overall gross margins are not comparable year-on-year. This is because, while our Renewable Energy Power Sales segment earns a consistent gross margin, the margin of Renewable Energy Services segment varies as shown in the image below:

Notes:

- (1) Cost is a sum of the Cost of materials consumed and cost of services and Purchase of traded goods.
- (2) Gross Margin is calculated as Revenue from operations less Cost of materials consumed and cost of services and Purchase of traded goods. Please see “ – Non-GAAP Measures ” on page 838.
- (3) Gross Margin % is calculated as Gross Margin of the segment as a percentage of Revenue from Operations of the respective segment. Please see “ – Non-GAAP Measures ” on page 838.

- Employee benefits expenses: this expense primarily relates to salaries, wages and bonuses paid to employees and employee share based payment expenses. As of September 30, 2025 and March 31, 2025, 2024 and 2023, we had an employee base of 565, 491, 337 and 273, respectively. Our employee benefits expenses also includes share based payment expenses which are equity-settled in nature and, therefore, do not entail a cash outflow for our Company.

- Finance expenses: this expense primarily includes interest expense incurred for the loans we avail towards the development of power plants. Such loans include project finance debt, mezzanine loans and working capital loans. See “Financial Indebtedness” starting on page 825 for more details.
- Depreciation, amortization and impairment expenses: this expense primarily relates to depreciation expenses incurred on our power plants over their useful life, which is typically 25 years.
- Exceptional items: The Company recorded a loss on account of changes in fair value of Compulsory Convertible Preference Shares (“CCPS”), which are measured at fair value through profit and loss, amounting to ₹107.66 million and ₹891.90 million in Fiscal 2024 and Fiscal 2023, respectively. Since this is distinct from the ordinary business of the Company, it is classified as an exceptional item. This loss does not entail any cash outflow for the Company. Also, these CCPS were converted into ordinary equity shares of the Company at fair value and thus had no impact on the Company’s overall net worth.
- Total tax expense: Our total tax expense include current tax which primarily represents the taxes paid on inter-company and third-party margins of EPC contracts for renewable energy plants. As the constructed capacity increases, so does the corresponding tax expense. Therefore, the tax expense is representative of our growth in capacity. Typically, our Renewable Energy Power Sales segment, which is a significant contributor to our revenue and profitability, has nil tax for the first seven to eight years due to high unabsorbed depreciation. Deferred taxes relate to the notional tax adjustment on temporary differences between book profits and taxable profits.
- We also incur other expenses which primarily include insurance charges and compliance related costs such as statutory audit fees, internal audit fees and Corporate Social Responsibility expense.

Principal Factors Affecting our Financial Condition and Results of Operations

Contracted and Operational Capacity

(a) Building new capacity

Our profitability depends on our ability to generate more revenue by developing and contracting new capacity for either the Renewable Energy Power Sales Segment or the Renewable Energy Services Segment. Evacuation approvals and land acquisition are critical for pipeline development in India, ensuring infrastructure and land access for effective project execution. Our pipeline offers visibility into growth and capacity additions in the coming years, underscoring our strategic expansion efforts. Beyond contracting, strong project development and evacuation visibility are essential for consistent delivery, as reflected in our project pipeline. The following table provides details of our capacity and project pipeline as of March 31, 2025 and as of September 30, 2025:

Stage	Contracting Strategy	As of March 31, 2025			As of September 30, 2025

Notes:

- (1) Operational Capacity refers to projects commissioned as of March 31, 2025 or July 31, 2025 as applicable. Operational Capacity as on September 30, 2025 includes 286.75 MW of capacity for which CEIG charging approval has been received and COD certificate is awaited ;
- (2) Contracted Capacity refers to projects for which we have signed PPAs or LOIs with customers as of March 31, 2025 or J September 30, 2025 but are yet to execute projects; Contracted capacity includes 1,605 MW of contracted capacity for scheduled commissioning in the next 12 months i.e., on or before September 30, 2026.
- (3) Advance Stage Capacity refers to projects which have received evacuation approvals as of March 31, 2025 or September 30, 2025;
- (4) Under Development Capacity refers to projects with evacuation approval applied for as of March 31, 2025 or September 30, 2025.

Tariffs

Almost all power generated from our projects is sold under long-term PPAs to data centre, AI, technology, and other C&I customers. These PPAs have a weighted average term of 22.85 years. As of September 30, 2025, the average remaining tenure of our PPAs is more than 18 years. The tariff under our PPAs is determined through bilateral negotiations with our customers. Tariffs under our PPAs are mostly fixed for the duration of the PPA insulating us from variabilities of grid-based tariffs. Our success therefore depends on our ability to contract additional capacity and competitively negotiate tariffs with customers. Further, our profitability also depends on the mix of power that is contracted. We generate higher tariffs from the sale of wind and/or hybrid power, compared to solar power.

Particulars	For the six months ended September 30,		Fiscal
	2025	2024	2025	2024	2023
Average realised tariffs (₹ Per unit)	4.25	4.35	4.28	4.47	4.95
Average contracted tariffs (₹ Per unit)	3.58	3.83	3.62	3.69	4.12

We aim to expand and diversify our Renewable Energy Power Sales Segment, in terms of technology offerings and geographic footprint, to address evolving customer needs and regulatory opportunities. For more details, see “Our Business – Evolving our Operating Practices and Strategies” starting on page 313.

Execution efficiency – cost and time

Our profitability is predominantly contingent on our ability to manage costs relating to our EPC operations. Our most significant cost are those related to construction materials, stores and spare parts, including modules, inverters, turbines and steel, and the cost of services procured for the construction. As we conduct most of the EPC work internally, we gain greater control over specific costs. This is reflected in our projects being delivered within budgets. Below is the actual construction cost incurred as a percentage of the budgeted construction costs for own projects commissioned during the periods indicated.

Particulars	For the six months ended September 30,		Fiscal
	2025	2024	2025	2024	2023
Actual Cost/Budgeted Cost (%)	96.77%	99.99%	95.24%	95.54%	97.41%

Our profitability also depends on our ability to execute our contracts on contractually agreed timelines, as evidenced by the utilization of only 27.85% and 62.35% of the sanctioned interest cost during construction in the six months ended September 30, 2025 and the last three fiscals.

We also provide Capex Services which include designing, developing, constructing and maintaining renewable energy plants owned by customers. We generally enter into fixed price contracts of less than one year for turnkey projects and recognize revenue over time as we progress with construction on a percentage of completion method basis. We bill our customers according to contractually agreed milestones that reflect key stages of execution, such as entering into supplier contracts, delivery of modules and construction equipment and materials, installation, and commissioning of the solar power project. We also typically receive an advance payment from our customers at the time we enter into the contract and adjust the advance received against milestone payments.

Revenue earned from our Renewable Energy Power Sales segment is generally more consistent and has relatively low operating costs, leading to higher margins, whereas revenue from our Renewable Services Segment provides immediate cash flows.

Maintenance and performance of operational capacity

Our profitability is also affected by our ability to continue operating and maintaining our existing commissioned capacity, which depends on the continued availability of our power assets and the grid. The table below provides the average Plant and Grid Availability of our power plants for the periods indicated:

Particulars	For the six months ended September 30,		As of March 31,
	2025	2024	2025	2024	2023
Plant Availability – Offsite ⁽¹⁾ (average)	97.59%	97.45%	97.74%	97.71%	97.89%
Average Grid Availability – Offsite ⁽²⁾ (average)	99.08%	99.25%	99.10%	99.26%	98.95%

(1) “Plant Availability” is calculated as weighted average of plant availability by fully operational offsite projects capacity in the portfolio during the period/year.

(2) “Average Grid Availability” is calculated as weighted average of grid availability by fully operational offsite project capacity in the portfolio during the period/year.

Our plant performance also depends on:

- Weather conditions can have a significant effect on our power generation activities. The profitability of power plants is directly correlated to wind and solar conditions at our project sites. Variations in wind conditions occur as a result of fluctuations in wind currents on a daily, monthly and seasonal basis and, over the long-term, as a result of more general changes in the climate. In particular, wind conditions are generally tied to the monsoon season in India. The monsoon season in India runs from May to September (high wind months) and we generate a majority of our annual wind energy production during this period. Unfavorable wind conditions during the monsoon season could adversely affect production levels and our revenues. Our profitability also depends on the accuracy of the observed wind and solar conditions at our plants based on long-term averages of available resource data during the project development phase. Actual wind conditions may not conform to the measured data in resource assessment studies. In addition, climate conditions may be adversely affected by nearby objects, such as buildings, other large-scale structures or wind turbine generator systems, developed later by third parties. Furthermore, components of our systems, such as solar module panels and inverters, could be damaged by severe weather conditions, such as hailstorms, tornadoes or lightning strikes or levels of pollution, dust and humidity.
- The number and length of planned outages undertaken in order to perform necessary inspections and testing to comply with industry regulations and to permit us to carry out any maintenance activities can also affect our operating results. When possible, we try to schedule the timing of planned outages during the months with relatively low wind velocity. Unplanned outages caused by equipment malfunction, mechanical failure or damage to evacuation infrastructure could negatively affect our operating results. To manage malfunctions and to enable our projects to perform at desired levels, we undertake regular maintenance of our equipment. We seek to mitigate the risks of equipment failure by monitoring the performance of our wind and solar plants from our central and state monitoring centers on a continuous basis, reviewing real time data on actual energy generation at each site and addressing any anomaly.
- Our results of operations are materially influenced by the degree to which we are able to achieve maximum generation volumes through the operation of our projects. We strive to achieve growth by improving the availability and capacity of our projects while minimizing planned and unplanned project downtime. The number and length of planned outages, undertaken in order to perform necessary inspections and testing to comply with regulations and to permit us to carry out any maintenance activities, can impact operating results. When possible, we seek to schedule the timing of planned outages to coincide with periods of relatively low wind speeds at the relevant project. Likewise, unplanned outages can negatively affect our operating results, even if such outages may be covered by insurance.

Ability to obtain effective financing arrangements

- Project-level financing: We usually obtain project-level debt amounting to 65%-75% of the sanctioned project cost. This debt, post construction and asset stabilization, is refinanced at lower interest rates with top-ups in the majority of cases. This enables us to recover a significant portion of our equity invested in the project within one or two years of operations, while also managing the cost of financing. The table below provides the average project-level interest cost as a percentage of total expenses for the periods indicated:

Particulars	For the six months ended September 30,		Fiscal
	2025	2024	2025	2024	2023
Cost of Project Debt ⁽¹⁾	8.93%	9.35%	9.19%	9.47%	9.60%
Corporate Credit Rating	CARE A+ Positive	CARE A+ Positive	CARE A+ Positive	CARE A+ Stable	CARE A- Stable

Cost of Project Debt calculated as the weighted average interest rate on project loans outstanding as at the end of the respective periods.

- Co-investments partnerships: Our business is inherently capital-intensive. To maximize growth while minimizing equity investment, we are pursuing several co-investment partnerships at the project level, wherein a 49% equity interest is being offered to a co-investment partner. We have entered into such co-investment partnerships with Apple, Osaka Gas and Toyota Tsusho.

However, we also manage our overall leverage by tracking our Debt (net off liquid assets)/EBITDA ratio. We have maintained a Debt (net off liquid assets)/Adjusted EBITDA ratio of 9.43 and 4.80 as of the six months ended September 30, 2025 and March 31, 2025, respectively.

Our Cost of materials consumed and cost of services increased by 73.43% to ₹1,948.81 million in the six months ended September 30, 2025 from ₹1,123.70 million in the six months ended September 30, 2024, primarily due to increase in operation and maintenance cost by ₹166.85 million corresponding to an increase in sale of power. The balance increase of ₹722.00 million is primarily on account of increase in cost of EPC projects, corresponding to an increase in revenue from projects.

Purchase of traded goods

Our purchase of traded goods increased by 313.68% to ₹84.06 million in the six months ended September 30, 2025 from ₹20.32 million in the six months ended September 30, 2024 corresponding to an increase in revenue from sale of goods and corresponding margins.

Fiscal 2025 Compared to Fiscal 2024

Income

Our total income increased by 12.98% to ₹16,103.42 million in Fiscal 2025 from ₹14,253.09 million in Fiscal 2024, primarily due to an increase in our revenue from Renewable Energy Power Sales. This increase was partially offset by a decrease in our revenue from Renewable Energy Services.

- Our revenue from Renewable Energy Power Sales increased by 27.81% to ₹11,072.48 million in Fiscal 2025 from ₹8,663.33 million in Fiscal 2024, primarily due to the capitalisation of additional capacity in Fiscal 2025 and the full-year revenue generated from plants commissioned during Fiscal 2024.
- Our revenue from Renewable Energy Services decreased by 27.29% to ₹3,766.53 million in Fiscal 2025 from ₹5,180.04 million in Fiscal 2024, primarily because fewer customers opted for our Capex Services in Fiscal 2025 compared to Fiscal 2024.

Other income

Our other income increased by 223.19% to ₹1,146.41 million in Fiscal 2025 from ₹354.72 million in Fiscal 2024, primarily due to a one-time gain on modification of borrowing terms of ₹241.36 million and a one-time gain on change of ownership interest in a subsidiary of ₹275.00 million.

Expenses

Cost of materials consumed and cost of services

Our Cost of materials consumed and cost of services decreased by 9.41% to ₹4,073.22 million in Fiscal 2025 from ₹4,496.10 million in Fiscal 2024, which was in line with the decrease in revenue from Renewable Energy Services, partially offset by an increase in O&M cost in the Renewable Energy Power Sales.

Purchase of traded goods

Our purchase of traded goods increased by 93.75% to ₹26.35 million in Fiscal 2025 from ₹13.60 million in Fiscal 2024, primarily due to the purchase of goods for supply to Kanoo Cleanmax Renewables Asset Co W.L.L, a joint venture company of the Group for the Bahrain market.

Employee benefits expense

Our employee benefits expense decreased by 33.93% to ₹1,046.82 million in Fiscal 2025 from ₹1,584.47 million in Fiscal 2024 due to a decrease in salaries, wages and bonus in Fiscal 2025. In Fiscal 2024, we paid a one-time bonus of ₹619.46 million paid on account of obtaining equity investment from a new investor in Fiscal 2024, which we did not incur in Fiscal 2025. This decrease was partially offset by an increase in salaries paid due to an increase in our overall headcount to 491 as of March 31, 2025 from 337 as of March 31, 2024.

Other expenses

Our other expenses increased by 8.49% to ₹806.31 million in Fiscal 2025 from ₹743.19 million in Fiscal 2024, primarily due to an increase in legal and professional fees incurred, which is in line with the increase in the number of SPVs in relation to our STU-Group Captive projects and our business growth, an increase in CSR expense and an increase in computer and software expenses as we shifted to a new accounting software in Fiscal 2025.

Finance costs

Our finance costs increased by 31.43% to ₹6,628.87 million in Fiscal 2025 from ₹5,043.84 million in Fiscal 2024, primarily due to an increase in our debt and lease liabilities in Fiscal 2025 as we incurred additional debt to support the increase in our power generation capacity. However, our Cost of Project Debt decreased by 0.28% to 9.19% in Fiscal 2025 from 9.47% in Fiscal 2024.

Depreciation, amortisation and impairment

Our depreciation, amortisation and impairment increased by 35.42% to ₹2,999.90 million in Fiscal 2025 from ₹2,215.32 million in Fiscal 2024 with an increase in power plants commissioned by us during the year and the full-year depreciation of plants commissioned during Fiscal 2024.

There is no significant variance in our current tax for Fiscal 2025 compared to the previous year. This stability is attributed to our consistent inter-company margins driven by steady growth in capacity. We have calculated our deferred tax to account for the temporary differences between our tax records and financial books.

Restated Profit for the year

As a result of the foregoing factors, our restated profit for the year increased by 151.61% to a profit of ₹194.29 million in Fiscal 2025 from our restated loss of ₹376.43 million in Fiscal 2024.

- Our revenue from Renewable Energy Services increased by 13.91% to ₹5,180.04 million in Fiscal 2024 from ₹4,547.67 million in Fiscal 2023, primarily because more customers availed our Capex Services in Fiscal 2024 compared to Fiscal 2023.

Other income

Our other income increased by 12.98% to ₹354.72 million in Fiscal 2024 from ₹313.97 million in Fiscal 2023, primarily due to interest income from banks on fixed deposits measured on amortized cost.

Expenses

Cost of materials consumed and cost of services

Our Cost of materials consumed and cost of services increased by 5.26% to ₹4,496.10 million in Fiscal 2024 from ₹4,271.57 million in Fiscal 2023, which is in line with the increase in revenue from both Renewable Energy Services and the Renewable Energy Power Sales.

Employee benefits expenses

Our employee benefits expenses increased by 134.72% to ₹1,584.47 million in Fiscal 2024 from ₹675.06 million in Fiscal 2023, primarily due to the increase in salaries, wages and bonus. This increase was primarily due to a one-time bonus of ₹619.46 million on account of obtaining equity investment from a new investor in Fiscal 2024. Other expenses

Our other expenses increased by 23.05% to ₹743.19 million in Fiscal 2024 from ₹603.97 million in Fiscal 2023, primarily due to an increase in insurance charges on additional capacity commissioned during Fiscal 2024, an increase in legal and professional fees incurred, which aligns with the growth in the number of SPVs related to our STU-Group Captive projects and our business expansion, and an increase in CSR expenses.

Finance costs

Our finance costs increased by 132.20% to ₹5,043.84 million in Fiscal 2024 from ₹2,172.22 million in Fiscal 2023, primarily due to an increase in our debt and lease liabilities in Fiscal 2024 to support the increase in our power generation capacity. Our Cost of Project Debt decreased by 0.13% to 9.47% in Fiscal 2024 from 9.60% in Fiscal 2023.

Depreciation, amortisation and impairment

Our depreciation, amortisation and impairment increased by 88.35% to ₹2,215.32 million in Fiscal 2024 from ₹1,176.15 million in Fiscal 2023 with an increase in power plants commissioned/operated by us during the year.

There is no significant variance in our current tax for Fiscal 2024 compared to the previous year. This stability is due to our consistent inter-company margins, driven by steady growth in capacity. We have calculated our deferred tax to reflect the temporary differences between our tax records and financial books.

Restated Loss for the year

Gross Margin, EBITDA, Adjusted EBITDA, Adjusted EBITDA of the Segment and Cash PAT.

- Gross Margin is defined as the revenue from operations, less the cost of materials consumed and cost of services, and the purchase of traded goods.
- EBITDA is calculated as Revenue from operations minus Cost of materials consumed and cost of services minus Purchase of traded goods minus Employee benefits expense minus other expenses. The cost of services and other expenses include any maintenance expense towards our renewable energy plants.
- Adjusted EBITDA is calculated as Restated profit/(loss) for the period/year plus Total tax expenses, Exceptional items, Depreciation, impairment and amortisation expenses, Finance costs and Non-Cash/One-time expenses Less Share of profit of joint ventures and associate (net of taxes) and Non-Cash/One-time incomes.
- Adjusted EBITDA of the Segment for Renewable Energy Power and Renewable Energy services segment is computed as segment result plus finance cost less share of profit of joint ventures and associate (net of taxes). Depreciation and amortisation expenses and Total tax expense are not included in Segment result.
- Cash PAT is calculated as Restated Profit/(Loss) before share of profit of joint venture and associate minus Restated (Loss)/Profit for the period attributable to Non-controlling interests plus Depreciation, amortisation and impairment expenses plus Non-cash finance cost plus Non-cash expenses minus Deferred tax credit minus Non-cash incomes.

Key Balance Sheet Items

Goodwill

Our goodwill increased to ₹199.62 million in as of March 31, 2025 from nil as of March 31, 2024, due to a change in ownership interest from October 1, 2024 in an erstwhile associate company. Following this change the erstwhile associate company became a subsidiary of the Group, and the difference between the fair value and book value of the underlying assets was recorded as goodwill.

Other Intangible Assets

Our other intangible assets increased by 215.16% to ₹1,241.87 million in as of March 31, 2025 from ₹394.04 million in as of March 31, 2024, primarily due to the recognition of customer contracts amounting to ₹677.85 million, arising from the fair valuation of underlying assets of a former associate company that became a subsidiary of the Group following a change in ownership interest.

Non-Current Investments

Our non-current investments increased by 1,567.18% to ₹206.73 million as of March 31, 2024 from ₹12.40 million as of March 31, 2023, primarily due to an investment in lien-marked mutual funds amounting to ₹206.73 million in Fiscal 2024.

Non-Current Loans

Our non-current loans decreased by 89.15% to ₹33.04 million as of March 31, 2025 from ₹304.60 million as of March 31, 2024, primarily due to the elimination of a non-current loan previously extended to the erstwhile associate company. This adjustment was made in Fiscal 2025 following a change in ownership interest, pursuant to which the entity became a subsidiary of the Group.

Other Current Assets

The increase in our other current assets as of March 31, 2025 is primarily on account of an increase of ₹1,164.29 million in indirect tax recoverable from ₹384.86 million in Fiscal 2024 to ₹1,549.15 million in Fiscal 2025 on major capital costs incurred in Fiscal 2025.

Inventories

Our inventories increased by 30.34% to ₹520.82 million as of March 31, 2025 from ₹399.58 million as of March 31, 2024 and decreased by 47.94% to ₹399.58 million as of March 31, 2024 from ₹767.47 million as of March 31, 2023. These fluctuations were driven by costs incurred toward projects forming part of the Renewable Energy Services segment. As the scale of this segment varies based on customer requirements, the level of inventory correspondingly fluctuates.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Our cash and cash equivalents increased by 562.24% to ₹3,285.85 million in Fiscal 2025 from ₹496.17 million in Fiscal 2024 and decreased by 56.16% to ₹496.17 million in Fiscal 2024 from ₹1,131.66 million in Fiscal 2023. These fluctuations were due to the balance sheet being drawn at a specific point in time. Toward the end of each fiscal year, we received loan disbursements, the utilisation of which occurred after the reporting date. As a result, the cash balance was elevated as of the end of Fiscal 2025 and Fiscal 2023.

Current Loans

Our current loans increased by 285.84% to ₹29.98 million in Fiscal 2025 from ₹7.77 million in Fiscal 2024, primarily due to an increase in loan to employees in Fiscal 2025.

Non-Current Lease Liabilities

Our non-current lease liabilities increased by 95.22% to ₹983.72 million in Fiscal 2025 from ₹503.91 million in Fiscal 2024, primarily due to land taken on lease at a majority of our under-construction sites.

Non-Current Other Financial Liabilities

Our non-current other financial liabilities increased by 859.83% to ₹126.89 million in Fiscal 2025 from ₹13.22 million in Fiscal 2024 and decreased by 95.72% to ₹13.22 million in Fiscal 2024 from ₹309.05 million in Fiscal 2023. These fluctuations were primarily due to the following: in Fiscal 2023, we had a liability of ₹290.18 million toward investment in subsidiaries by an Alternate Investment Fund, which was repaid in Fiscal 2024, resulting in a reduction in that year. In Fiscal 2025, we recognised a contractual obligation/right to repurchase shares issued to non-controlling interests, to be settled in cash by the Group at the present value of the redemption. This was recorded as a redemption liability of ₹91.06 million, contributing to the increase in Fiscal 2025.

Current Borrowings

Our current borrowings increased by 165.35% to ₹8,468.61 million in Fiscal 2025 from ₹3,191.49 million in Fiscal 2024, primarily due to an increase in current maturities resulting from additional loans taken for new projects commissioned and under construction. Additionally, we received a refinanced loan of ₹3,730 million in March 2025, replacing an existing loan that was due for repayment in April 2025. Consequently, the refinanced loan was classified as current as of the end of Fiscal 2025.

Current Lease Liabilities

Our current lease liabilities increased by 176.41% to ₹151.25 million in Fiscal 2025 from ₹54.72 million in Fiscal 2024, primarily due to land taken on lease at a majority of our under-construction sites.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Historically, our primary liquidity requirements have been to finance the construction and development of new capacity. We have met these requirements through cash flows from operations, equity infusions from shareholders (including Promoters) and borrowings. As of September 30, 2025, we had ₹2,163.22 million in cash and cash equivalents, ₹9,279.24 million in bank balances other than cash and cash equivalents, ₹3,317.73 million in balances with banks held as margin money (non-current), ₹506.57 million in lien-marked mutual funds - quoted, ₹96,670.78 million in non-current borrowings and ₹4543.82 million in current borrowings. As of March 31, 2025, we had ₹3,285.85 million in cash and cash equivalents, ₹8,608.04 million in bank balances other than cash and cash equivalents, ₹4,068.83 million in balances with banks held as margin money (non-current), ₹554.15 million in lien-marked mutual funds - quoted, ₹71,268.37 million in non-current borrowings and ₹8,468.61 million in current borrowings. We believe that, after taking into account the expected cash to be generated from operations, our borrowings and the proceeds from the Offer, we will have sufficient liquidity for our present requirements and anticipated requirements for capital expenditure and working capital for the next 36 months.

Material Accounting Policies

Principles of consolidation and equity accounting

Subsidiaries

Subsidiaries are entities (including structured entities) over which we have control. We control an entity when we are exposed to, or have rights to, variable returns from its involvement with the entity and have the ability to affect those returns through our power to direct the relevant activities of that entity. Subsidiaries are fully consolidated from the date on which control is transferred to us.

We combine the financial statements of the parent and its subsidiaries line by line adding together items of assets, liabilities, equity, income and expenses. For this purpose, income and expenses of the subsidiary are based on the amounts of the assets and liabilities recognized in the Restated Statement of Assets and Liabilities at the acquisition date. Intra-Group transactions, balances and unrealised gains on transactions between entities within us are eliminated. Unrealised losses are also eliminated unless the transaction provides evidence of an impairment of the transferred asset. Accounting policies of subsidiaries have been changed where necessary to ensure consistency with the policies adopted by us. Non-controlling interests in the results and equity of subsidiaries are shown separately in the Restated Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss, Restated Consolidated Statement of Changes in Equity and Restated Consolidated Statement of Assets and Liabilities respectively.

Joint Ventures and Associate - Equity Method Accounting

Joint ventures are joint arrangements whereby the parties that have joint control of the arrangements have rights to the net assets and obligations for the liabilities, relating to the arrangement. An associate is an entity in which we have significant influence but not control or joint control, over the financial and operating policies.

Interests in joint ventures and associate are accounted for using the equity method, after initially being recognised at cost in the Restated Consolidated Statement of Assets and Liabilities.

Under the equity method of accounting, the investments are initially recognised at cost and adjusted thereafter to recognize our share of the post-acquisition profits or losses of the investee in the Restated Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss, and our share of other comprehensive income of the investee in Other Comprehensive Income. Dividends received or receivable from joint ventures and associate are recognised as a reduction in the carrying amount of the investment. When our share of losses in an equity-accounted investment equals or exceeds its interest in the entity, including any other unsecured long-term receivables, we do not recognize further losses, unless it has incurred obligations or made payments on behalf of the other entity. Unrealised gains on transactions between us and our Joint Ventures and Associate are eliminated to the extent of our interest in these entities. Unrealised losses are also eliminated unless the transaction provides evidence of an impairment of the asset transferred. Accounting policies of equity accounted investees have been changed where necessary to ensure consistency with the policies adopted by us. The carrying amount of equity accounted investments are tested for impairment.

The financial statements of subsidiaries, joint ventures and associate consolidated are drawn up to the same reporting date as us.

Change of ownership interest in subsidiary

We treat transactions with non-controlling interests that do not result in a loss of control as transactions with equity owners of us. A change in ownership interest results in an adjustment between the carrying amounts of the controlling and non-controlling interests to reflect their relative interests in the subsidiary. Any difference between the amount of the adjustment to non-controlling interests and any consideration paid or received is recognised within equity.

When we cease to consolidate or equity account for an investment because of a loss of control, joint control or significant influence, any retained interest in the entity is re-measured to its fair value with the change in carrying amount recognised in profit or loss. This fair value becomes the initial carrying amount for the purposes of subsequently accounting for the retained interest as a joint venture or financial asset. In addition, any amounts previously recognised in Other Comprehensive Income in respect of that entity are accounted for as if we had directly disposed of the related assets or liabilities. This may mean that amounts previously recognised in Other Comprehensive Income are reclassified to the Restated Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss. If the ownership interest in a joint venture is reduced but joint control or significant influence is retained, only a proportionate share of the amounts previously recognised in Other Comprehensive Income are reclassified to the Restated Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss where appropriate.

Non-controlling interest

Non-controlling interests in the net assets (excluding goodwill) of consolidated subsidiaries are identified separately from the Company's equity. The interest of non-controlling shareholders may be initially measured either at fair value or at the non-controlling interest's proportionate share of the fair value of the acquiree's identifiable net assets.

For this purpose, income and expenses of the subsidiary are based on the amounts of the assets and liabilities recognized in the consolidated financial statements at the acquisition date. The choice of measurement basis is made on an acquisition-to-acquisition basis. Subsequent to acquisition, the carrying amount of non-controlling interest is the amount of those interests at initial recognition plus the non-controlling interest's share of subsequent changes in equity. Total comprehensive income is attributed to non-controlling interests even if it results in the non-controlling interest having a deficit balance. A change in the ownership interest of a subsidiary, without a loss of control, is accounted for as an equity transaction. If we lose control over a subsidiary, we:

- Derecognise the assets (including goodwill) and liabilities of the subsidiary
- Derecognise the carrying amount of any non-controlling interests
- Derecognise the cumulative translation differences recorded in equity
- Recognise the fair value of the consideration received
- Recognise the fair value of any investment retained
- Recognise any surplus or deficit in profit or loss
- Reclassify the parent's share of components previously recognised in OCI to profit or loss or retained earnings, as appropriate, as would be required if we had directly disposed of the related assets or liabilities

Revenue from contracts with customers

Revenue from operations

Revenue is recognised to the extent that it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to us and revenue can be reliably measured. Revenue excludes indirect taxes which are collected on behalf of Government.

Revenue from sale of power

Revenue from sale of power is recognised when the units of electricity is delivered at the price agreed with the customer in the power purchase agreement which coincides with the transfer of control and we have a present right to receive the payment.

Revenue is measured based on the transaction price, which is the consideration, adjusted for discounts and other incentives, if any, as specified in the contract with the customer or on account of change in law. Revenue also excludes taxes or other amounts collected from customers in its capacity as an agent. If the consideration in a contract includes a variable amount or consideration payable to the customer, we estimate the amount of consideration to which we will be entitled in exchange for transferring the goods/services to the customer. The variable consideration is estimated at contract inception and constrained until it is highly probable that a significant revenue reversal in the amount of cumulative revenue recognised will not occur when the associated uncertainty with the variable consideration is subsequently resolved.

Revenue from construction contracts

Revenue from contracts with customers is recognised when a performance obligation is satisfied by transfer of promised goods or services to a customer. For performance obligation satisfied over time, the revenue is recognised by measuring the progress towards satisfaction of performance obligation. We transfer control of a good or service over time and satisfy a performance obligation and recognise revenue over a period of time if one of the following criteria is met:

- (a) the customer simultaneously consumes the benefit of the Group's performance or
- (b) the customer controls the asset as it is being created/enhanced by the Group's performance or
- (c) there is no alternative use of the asset and the group has either explicit or implicit right of payment considering legal precedents

Fixed price contracts: Contract revenue is recognised at allocable transaction price which represents the cost of work performed on the contract plus proportionate margin, using the percentage of completion method. Percentage of completion is the proportion of cost of work performed to-date, to the total estimated contract costs.

Determination of percentage of completion

We use the proportionate completion method for recognition of revenue, accounting for unbilled revenue/unearned revenue and contract cost thereon for its turnkey contracts. The percentage of completion is measured by reference to the stage of the projects and contracts determined based on the proportion of contract costs incurred for work performed to date bear to the estimated total contract costs. Use of the proportionate completion method requires us to estimate the efforts or costs expended to date as a proportion of the total efforts or costs to be expended. Significant assumptions are required in determining the stage of completion, the extent of the contract cost incurred, the estimated total contract revenue and contract cost and the recoverability of the contracts. These estimates are based on events existing at the end of each reporting date.

Revenue from sale of services

Revenue from services rendered over a period of time, such as operation and maintenance contracts and common infrastructure usage service, are recognised on straight line basis over the period of the performance obligation. Consideration is adjusted for the time value of money if the period between the transfer of goods or services and the receipt of payment exceeds twelve months and there is a significant financing benefit either to the customer or us.

Contract balances

A trade receivable represents our right to an amount of consideration that is unconditional i.e. only the passage of time is required before payment of consideration is due and the amount is billable.

Unbilled revenue is recognised for work performed under a contract but has not yet been invoiced to the customer on account of estimation and judgement involved.

Advance from customer represents a contract liability which is the obligation to transfer goods or services to a customer for which we have received consideration from the customer.

Amount due to customers under construction contracts and deferred revenue represents the difference between the revenue recognised and amount invoiced.

Other income

Interest income

For all financial instruments measured at amortized cost, interest income is recorded using the effective interest rate (EIR), which is the rate that discounts the estimated future cash payments or receipts through the expected life of the financial instruments or a shorter period, where appropriate, to the net carrying amount of the financial assets on initial recognition. Interest income is included in Other income in the Restated Consolidated Statement of Profit or Loss.

Insurance claim

Insurance claim on loss of asset and profit is recognised on receipt basis in the Restated Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss.

Costs to obtain a contract with the customer

We and our joint ventures and associate capitalise incremental costs of obtaining a contract, if any, and costs incurred to fulfil a contract are amortised over the period of execution of the contract in proportion to the progress measured in terms of a proportion of actual cost incurred to-date, to the total estimated cost attributable to the performance obligation.

Goods and Service tax input credit

Goods and Service tax input credit is accounted for in the books in the period in which the underlying goods and service received is accounted and when there is reasonable certainty in availing / utilizing the credits.

Employee benefits

Short-term benefits

Salaries, wages, and other short-term benefits, accruing to employees are recognised at undiscounted amounts in the period in which the employee renders the related service.

Retirement benefits

Defined contribution plan

We offer our employees defined contribution plans in the form of provident fund. Provident fund cover substantially all regular employees. Contributions are paid during the year into separate funds under certain fiduciary-type arrangements. Both our employees and we pay predetermined contributions into provident fund and family pension fund. The contributions are normally based on a certain proportion of the employee's salary. The contributions made are charged as an expense based on the amount of contribution required to be made and when services are rendered by the employees.

Defined benefit plan

For defined benefit plans in the form of gratuity, the cost of providing benefits is determined using the Projected Unit Credit method, with actuarial valuations being carried out at each balance sheet date. Actuarial gains and losses are recognised in Other Comprehensive Income in the period in which they occur. Past service cost is recognised immediately to the extent that the benefits are already vested and otherwise is amortised on a straight-line basis over the average period until the benefits become vested. The retirement benefit obligation recognised in the Balance Sheet represents the present value of the defined benefit obligation as adjusted for unrecognised past service cost, as reduced by the fair value of scheme assets. Any asset resulting from this calculation is limited to past service cost, plus the present value of available refunds and reductions in future contributions to the schemes.

Share-based payments

The grant date fair value of options granted to employees is recognised as an employee expense, with a corresponding increase in equity, over the period that the employees become unconditionally entitled to the options. The expense is recorded for each separately vesting portion of the award as if the award was, in substance, multiple awards. The increase in equity recognised in connection with share-based payments transaction is presented as a separate component in equity under 'Employee Stock Options outstanding'. The amount recognised as an expense is adjusted to reflect the actual number of stock options that vest. Details regarding the determination of the fair value of equity-settled share-based transactions are set out in Note 43.

Foreign Currencies

Our functional currency is the Indian rupee (Rs.).

Income and expenses in foreign currencies are recorded at exchange rates prevailing on the date of the transaction. Foreign currency denominated monetary assets and liabilities are translated at the exchange rate prevailing on the balance sheet date and exchange gains and losses arising on settlement and restatement are recognised in Restated Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss.

Foreign currency denominated non - monetary assets and liabilities that are measured at historical cost are not retranslated.

Taxation

Income tax expense represents the sum of the tax currently payable and deferred tax.

Current tax

The tax currently payable is based on taxable profit for the reporting period. Taxable profit differs from 'profit before tax' as reported in the Restated Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss because of items of income or expense that are taxable or deductible in other years and items that are never taxable or deductible. Our current tax is calculated using tax rates (applicable tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

Current income tax assets and liabilities for the current and prior periods are measured at the amount expected to be recovered from or paid to the taxation authorities. Current income taxes are recognised in the Restated Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss except to the extent that the tax relates to items recognised outside profit and loss, either in other comprehensive income or directly in equity. Management periodically evaluates positions taken in the tax returns with respect to situations in which applicable tax regulations are subject to interpretation and establishes provisions where appropriate.

We have accounted income tax based on our annualized performance in accordance with Ind AS 34 for the six months period ended 30th September 2025 and 30th September 2024.

Deferred tax

Deferred tax is recognised on temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities in the Restated Consolidated Financial Information and the corresponding tax bases used in the computation of taxable profit.

Deferred tax is not recognised for:

- temporary differences on the initial recognition of assets or liabilities in a transaction that:
 - is not a business combination; and
 - at the time of the transaction (i) affects neither accounting nor taxable profit or loss and (ii) does not give rise to equal taxable and deductible temporary differences
- temporary differences related to investments in subsidiaries, associates and joint arrangements to the extent that we are able to control the timing of the reversal of the temporary differences and it is probable that they will not reverse in the foreseeable future; and
- taxable temporary differences arising on the initial recognition of goodwill.

Deferred tax liabilities are generally recognised for all taxable temporary differences. Deferred tax assets are generally recognised for all deductible temporary differences to the extent that it is probable that taxable profits will be available against which those deductible temporary differences can be utilized. Such deferred tax assets and liabilities are not recognised if the temporary difference arises from the initial recognition of assets and liabilities in a transaction that affects neither the taxable profit nor the accounting profit.

Deferred tax assets are recognised for unused tax losses, unused tax credits and deductible temporary differences to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profits will be available against which they can be used. Future taxable profits are determined based on the reversal of relevant taxable temporary differences. If the amount of taxable temporary differences is insufficient to recognise a deferred tax asset in full, then future taxable profits, adjusted for reversals of existing temporary differences, are considered, based on the business plans for our individual subsidiaries. Deferred tax assets are reviewed at each reporting date and are reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that the related tax benefit will be realised; such reductions are reversed when the probability of future taxable profits improves.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the year in which the liability is settled or the asset realised, based on tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

The measurement of deferred tax liabilities and assets reflects the tax consequences that would follow from the manner in which we expect, at the end of the reporting period, to recover or settle the carrying amount of its assets and liabilities.

Property, Plant and Equipment, Capital work in progress and Depreciation

All items of property, plant and equipment, including freehold land, are initially recorded at cost. Subsequent to initial recognition, property, plant and equipment other than freehold land are measured at cost less accumulated depreciation and any accumulated impairment losses.

The cost of property, plant and equipment comprises its purchase price net of any trade discounts and rebates, any import duties and other taxes (other than those subsequently recoverable from the tax authorities), any directly attributable expenditure on making the asset ready for its intended use, including relevant borrowing costs for qualifying assets and any expected costs of decommissioning.

Borrowing cost allocated to and utilised for qualifying assets pertaining to the period up to the date of capitalisation is added to the cost of the assets. Salary cost and cost of travelling directly attributable has been capitalised to the cost of capital work in progress.

Freehold land is not depreciated.

Any gain or loss arising on derecognition / disposal of an asset is included in profit or loss.

Depreciation on property, plant and equipment has been provided as per the useful life prescribed in Schedule II to the Companies Act, 2013 except in respect Solar Power Plant, Wind Farms and Hybrid Farms where the life is considered as 25 years taking into account the nature of the asset, the estimated usage of the asset, the operating conditions of the asset, manufacturers warranties and maintenance support, etc.

The residual values, useful lives and methods of depreciation of property, plant and equipment are reviewed at each financial year end and adjusted prospectively, as appropriate.

The estimated useful lives of property, plant and equipment for current and comparative periods are as follows:

Category of Asset	Useful Life
Plant and machinery	15 to 25 years
Furniture and fixtures	10 years
Motor vehicle	10 years
Office equipments	10 years
Computers	3 years

Depreciable amount for assets is the cost of an asset, or other amount substituted for cost, less its estimated residual value.

Expenditure related to and incurred during implementation (net of incidental income) of capital projects to get the assets ready for intended use is included under “Capital Work in Progress (including related inventories)”. The same is allocated to the respective items of property plant and equipment on completion of construction / erection of the capital project / property, plant and equipment. Capital work in progress is stated at cost, net of accumulated impairment loss, if any.

Subsequent expenditure is capitalised only if it is probable that the future economic benefits associated with the expenditure will flow to us and the cost of the item can be measured reliably.

Other Intangible Assets and Amortisation

Intangible assets with finite useful lives that are acquired separately are carried at cost less accumulated amortization and accumulated impairment losses (if any). Amortization is recognised on a straight-line basis over their estimated useful lives. The estimated useful life and amortization method are reviewed at the end of each reporting period, with the effect of any changes in estimate being accounted for on a prospective basis.

The estimated useful lives of other intangible assets for current and comparative periods are as follows:

Category of Asset	Useful Life
Computer software	3 years
Commercial Right to use lease hold land	25-30 years
Customer contracts	Balance PPA Tenure

Subsequent expenditure is capitalised only if it is probable that the future economic benefits associated with the expenditure will flow to the Group and the cost of the item can be measured reliably.

Intangible assets under development

Expenditure on intangible assets eligible for capitalization are carried as intangible assets under development where such assets are not yet ready for their intended use.

Impairment of non-financial assets

At each reporting date, non-financial assets are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. An impairment loss is recognised for the amount by which the asset's carrying amount exceeds its recoverable amount. The recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's fair value less costs of disposal and value in use. For the purposes of assessing impairment, assets are compared at the lowest levels for which there are largely independent cash inflows (cash-generating units). Non-financial assets other than goodwill that suffered impairment are reviewed for possible reversal of the impairment at the end of each reporting period. Intangible assets that have an indefinite useful life or intangible assets not ready to use are not subject to amortization and are tested annually for impairment.

Impairment of financial assets

We assess at each reporting date whether there is any objective evidence that a financial asset is impaired. ECLs are based on the difference between the contractual cash flows due in accordance with the contract and all the cash flows that we expect to receive, discounted at an approximation of the original effective interest rate. The expected cash flows will include cash flows from the sale of collateral held or other credit enhancements that are integral to the contractual terms.

ECLs are recognised in two stages. For credit exposures for which there has not been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition, ECLs are provided for credit losses that result from default events that are possible within the next 12 months (a 12-month ECL). For those credit exposures for which there has been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition, a loss allowance is recognised for credit losses expected over the remaining life of the exposure, irrespective of timing of the default (a lifetime ECL).

We consider a financial asset to be in default when internal or external information indicates that we are unlikely to receive the outstanding contractual amounts in full before taking into account any credit enhancements held by us. A financial asset is written off when there is no reasonable expectation of recovering the contractual cash flows.

For trade receivables, we applied a simplified approach in calculating ECLs. Therefore, we do not track changes in credit risk, but instead recognize a loss allowance based on lifetime ECLs at each reporting date. Our trade receivables are mainly from high credit worthy Commercial and Industrial ('C&I') customers. Delayed payment carries interest as per the terms of agreements with C&I customers.

We assess ECL associated with its assets carried at amortised cost based on our past history of recovery, creditworthiness of the counter party and existing market conditions. The impairment methodology applied depends on whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk. For trade receivables, we apply the simplified approach for recognition of impairment allowance as provided in Ind AS 109 – Financial Instruments, which requires expected lifetime losses to be recognised on initial recognition of the receivables.

Financial Instruments

Financial assets

Classification

We classify financial assets as subsequently measured at amortised cost, fair value through other comprehensive income or fair value through profit or loss on the basis of its business model for managing the financial assets and the contractual cash flow characteristics of the financial asset.

Initial recognition and measurement

Trade receivables and debt securities issued are initially recognised when they originate and recorded at transaction price. We recognise financial assets (other than trade receivables and debt securities) when it becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument. All financial assets (excluding trade receivables that are recorded at transaction price) are recognised initially at fair value, plus in the case of financial assets not recorded at fair value through profit or loss (FVTPL), transaction costs that are attributable to the acquisition of the financial asset. However, trade receivables that do not contain a significant financing component are measured at transaction price.

Subsequent measurement

For the purpose of subsequent measurement, the financial assets are classified in three categories:

- Financial assets at Amortised cost

A financial asset is measured at amortised cost if both of the following conditions are met:

- the asset is held within a business model whose objective is to hold financial assets in order to collect contractual cash flows; and
- the contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding

After initial measurement, such financial assets are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest (EIR) method. Amortised cost is calculated by considering any discount or premium on acquisition and fees or costs that are an integral part of the EIR and reported as part of interest income in the Restated Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss. The losses if any, arising from impairment are recognised in the Restated Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss.

- Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss (FVTPL)

Financial assets at FVTPL include financial assets that either do not meet the criteria for amortised cost classification or are equity instruments held for trading or that meet certain conditions and are designated at FVTPL upon initial recognition. All derivative financial instruments also fall into this category, except for those designated and effective as hedging instruments, for which the hedge accounting requirements may apply. Assets in this category are measured at fair value with gains or losses recognised in the Restated Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss. The fair values of financial assets in this category are determined by reference to active market transactions or using a valuation technique where no active market exists.

- Financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income (FVOCI) – debt investment

A debt investment is measured at FVOCI if both of the following conditions are met:

- the asset is held within a business model whose objective is achieved by both collecting contractual cash flows and selling financial assets; and
- the contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding

After initial measurement, such financial assets are subsequently measured at fair value. Interest income is recognised using the effective interest (EIR) method. The loss allowance is recognized in other comprehensive income and does not reduce the carrying value of the financial asset. On derecognition, gains and losses accumulated in OCI are reclassified to Restated Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss.

- Financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income (FVOCI) – equity investment

On initial recognition of an equity investment that is not held for trading, we may irrevocably elect to present subsequent changes in the investment's fair value in Other Comprehensive Income. This election is made on an investment-by-investment basis.

After initial measurement, such financial assets are subsequently measured at fair value. Dividends are recognised as income in Restated Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss unless the dividend clearly represents a recovery of part of the cost of the investment. Other net gains and losses are recognised in OCI and are not reclassified to Restated Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss.

Derecognition of financial asset

A financial asset (or, where applicable, a part of a financial asset) is primarily derecognised when:

- the rights to receive cash flows from the asset have expired, or
- we have transferred substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset, or
- we have neither transferred nor retained substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset, but have transferred control of the asset.

Financial liabilities

Classification

All financial liabilities are subsequently measured at amortised cost.

Initial recognition and measurement

All financial liabilities are recognised initially at fair value and, in the case of loans and borrowings and payables, net of directly attributable transaction costs.

Subsequent measurement

Borrowings

After initial recognition, interest-bearing borrowings are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the Effective Interest Rate (EIR) method. Gains and losses are recognised in the Restated Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss when the liabilities are derecognised. Amortised cost is calculated by taking into account any discount or premium on acquisition and transactions costs. The EIR amortisation is included as finance costs in the Restated Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss.

Derivative financial instruments

We use derivative financial instruments such as foreign exchange forward contracts, interest rate swaps and Virtual Power Purchase Agreements (VPPA) to manage our exposure to foreign exchange risk, interest rate risk and price risk respectively. VPPAs are derivative instruments under which we receive the difference between fixed contracted prices and settled market prices and provide the counterparty with a contracted amount of environmental attributes generated by the renewable facility.

Derivative financial instruments (including embedded derivatives) are initially measured at fair value. Subsequent to initial recognition, derivatives are measured at fair value, and any gains or losses arising from changes in the fair value of derivatives are taken directly to Restated Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss immediately unless the derivative is designated and effective as a hedging instrument, in which event the timing of the recognition in Restated Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss depends on the nature of the hedging relationship and the nature of the hedged item. Derivatives are carried as financial assets when the fair value is positive and as financial liabilities when the fair value is negative.

Cash flow hedge

Derivatives are held to hedge the uncertainty in timing or amount of future forecast cash flows on account of forecasted transactions and recognised assets and liabilities. Such derivatives are classified as being part of cash flow hedge relationships. For an effective hedge, gains and losses from changes in the fair value of derivatives are recognised in Other Comprehensive Income. Any ineffective elements of the hedge are recognised in the Restated Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss.

If the hedging instrument no longer meets the criteria for hedge accounting, then hedge accounting is discontinued prospectively. If the hedging instrument expires or is sold, terminated or exercised, the cumulative gain or loss on the hedging instrument recognised in cash flow hedge reserve till the period the hedge was effective remains in cash flow hedge reserve until the forecasted transaction occurs. The cumulative gain or loss previously recognised in the cash flow hedge reserve is transferred to the Restated Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss upon the occurrence of the related forecasted transaction.

Derecognition of financial liability

A financial liability is derecognised when the obligation under the liability is discharged or cancelled or expires. When an existing financial liability is replaced by another from the same lender on substantially different terms, or the terms of an existing liability are substantially modified, such an exchange or modification is treated as the derecognition of the original liability and the recognition of a new liability. The difference in the respective carrying amounts is recognised in the Restated Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss.

Offsetting of financial instruments

Financial assets and financial liabilities are offset and the net amount is reported in the balance sheet if there is a currently enforceable legal right to offset the recognised amounts and there is an intention to settle them on a net basis or to realise the assets and settle the liabilities simultaneously.

Share capital

Ordinary equity shares

Incremental costs directly attributable to the issue of ordinary equity shares and share options are recognised as a deduction from equity, net of any tax effects.

Fair value measurement

Our accounting policies and disclosures require the measurement of fair values for financial and non-financial assets and liabilities. The management regularly reviews significant unobservable inputs and valuation adjustments.

When measuring the fair value of a financial asset or a financial liability, we use observable market data as far as possible. Fair values are categorised into different levels in a fair value hierarchy based on the inputs used in the valuation techniques as follows:

- Level 1: quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.
- Level 2: inputs other than quoted prices included in Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly (i.e. as prices) or indirectly (i.e. derived from prices).
- Level 3: inputs for the asset or liability that are not based on observable market data (Unobservable inputs).

If the inputs used to measure the fair value of an asset or a liability fall into different levels of the fair value hierarchy, then the fair value measurement is categorised in its entirety in the same level of the fair value hierarchy as the lowest level input that is significant to the entire measurement. We recognize transfers between levels of the fair value hierarchy at the end of the reporting period during which the change has occurred.

Cash and cash equivalents

We consider all highly liquid financial instruments, which are readily convertible into known amounts of cash that are subject to an insignificant risk of change in value and having original maturities of three months or less from the date of purchase, to be cash equivalents. Cash and cash equivalents consist of balances with banks which are unrestricted for withdrawal and usage.

For the purpose of the Restated Consolidated Statement of Cash Flows, cash and cash equivalents consist of cash and short-term deposits, as defined above.

Inventories

Inventories are valued at cost or net realizable value on an item-by-Item basis., whichever is lower, cost being worked out on weighted average basis. Cost includes all charges for bringing the goods to their present location and condition.

Net realizable value represents the estimated selling price for inventories less all estimated costs of completion and costs necessary to make the sale.

Leases

We evaluate each contract or arrangement, whether it qualifies as lease as defined under Ind AS 116.

We assess, whether the contract is, or contains, a lease. A contract is, or contains, a lease if the contract involves:

- the use of an identified asset,
- the right to obtain substantially all the economic benefits from use of the identified asset, and
- the right to direct the use of the identified asset.

The Group as a lessee

Right to Use Asset

We, at the inception of the lease contract, recognize a Right-of-Use (RoU) asset at cost and corresponding lease liability, except for leases with term of less than twelve months (short term) and low-value assets.

The cost of the right-of-use assets comprises the amount of the initial measurement of the lease liability, any lease payments made at or before the inception date of the lease plus any initial direct costs, less any lease incentives received. Subsequently, the right of use assets is measured at cost less any accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses, if any. The right-of-use assets is depreciated using the straight-line method from the commencement date over the shorter of lease term or useful life of right-of-use assets.

Category	Useful life
Office Buildings	1-4 years
Leasehold Land	25-30 years

We apply Ind AS 36 to determine whether a Right-of-Use asset is impaired and accounts for any identified impairment loss in the Restated Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss as described in the note (m).

Lease liabilities

For lease liabilities at inception, we measure the lease liability at the present value of the lease payments to be made over the lease term. The lease payments include fixed payments (including in substance fixed payments) less any lease incentives receivable, variable lease payments that depend on an index or a rate, and amounts expected to be paid under residual value guarantees. The lease payments also include the exercise price of a purchase option reasonably certain to be exercised by us and payments of penalties for terminating the lease, if the lease term reflects our exercising the option to terminate. Variable lease payments that do not depend on an index or a rate are recognised as expenses (unless they are incurred to produce inventories) in the period in which the event or condition that triggers the payment occurs. The lease payments are discounted using the interest rate implicit in the lease, if that rate is readily determined, if that rate is not readily determined, the lease payments are discounted using the incremental borrowing rate. After the commencement date, the amount of lease liabilities is increased to reflect the accretion of interest considering effective interest rate and reduced for the lease payments made.

We recognize the amount of the re-measurement of lease liability as an adjustment to the right-of-use assets. Where the carrying amount of the right-of-use assets is reduced to zero and there is a further reduction in the measurement of the lease liability, we recognize any remaining amount of the re-measurement in the Restated Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss.

Provisions, contingent liabilities and contingent asset

A provision is recognised when we have a present legal or constructive obligation as a result of past events and it is probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation in respect of which a reliable estimate can be made. Provisions (excluding retirement benefits) are discounted to their present value at a pre-tax rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the liability and are determined based on the best estimate required to settle the obligation at the Balance Sheet date. These are reviewed at each Balance Sheet date and adjusted to reflect the current best estimates. The unwinding of the discount is recognised as finance cost.

Contingent liabilities are disclosed for possible obligations which will be confirmed only by future events not wholly within our control; or present obligations arising from past events where it is not probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation or a reliable estimate of the amount of the obligation cannot be made.

Contingent assets are not recognised in the Restated Consolidated Financial Information. However, the same are disclosed in the Restated Consolidated Financial Information where an inflow of economic benefit is probable.

Segment Reporting

An operating segment is a component of us that engages in business activities from which it may earn revenues and incur expenses, including revenues and expenses that relate to transactions with any of our other components, and for which discrete financial information is available. Operating segments are identified based on the manner in which the chief operating decision-maker (CODM) decides about the resource allocation and reviews performance. The Managing Director of the Parent Company have been identified as the CODM.

Segment revenue, segment expenses, segment assets and segment liabilities have been identified to segments on the basis of their relationship to the operating activities of the segment.

Segment revenue resulting from transactions with other business segments is accounted on the basis of transfer price agreed between the segments. Such transfer prices are either determined to yield a desired margin or agreed on a negotiated basis.

Revenue, expenses, assets and liabilities which relate to us as a whole and are not allocable to segments on reasonable basis have been included under “unallocated revenue / expenses / assets/ liabilities”.

Earnings per share

Basic earnings per equity share has been computed by dividing the net profit or loss for the reporting period attributable to equity shareholders by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the reporting period.

Diluted earnings per share is computed by dividing the profit / (loss) after tax as adjusted for dividend, interest and other charges to expense or income (net of any attributable taxes) relating to the dilutive potential equity shares, by the weighted average number of equity shares considered for deriving basic earnings per share and the weighted average number of equity shares which could have been issued on conversion of all dilutive potential equity shares. If potential equity shares converted into equity shares increases the earnings per share, then they are treated as anti- dilutive and anti-dilutive earning per share is computed.

The weighted average number of equity shares outstanding is adjusted for bonus issue, bonus element in a rights issue to existing shareholders, share split and reverse share split (consolidation of shares).

Earnings before interest, tax, depreciation, impairment and amortization (EBITDA)

We present EBITDA in the Restated Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss; this is not specifically required by Ind AS 1. The term EBITDA is not defined in Ind AS. Ind AS compliant Schedule III allows companies to present line items, sub-line items and sub-totals as an addition or substitution on the face of the financial statements when such presentation is relevant to an understanding of our financial position or performance to or to cater to industry/sector-specific disclosure requirements or when required for compliance with the amendments to the Companies Act or under the Indian Accounting Standards.

Measurement of EBITDA

Accordingly, we have elected to present EBITDA as a separate line item on the face of the Restated Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss. In its measurement, we do not include exceptional items, depreciation, impairment and amortisation expenses, finance costs, share of profit from joint ventures and associate and income tax expense.

Business Combination

In determining whether a particular set of activities and assets is a business, we assess whether the set of assets and activities acquired includes, at a minimum, an input and substantive process and whether the acquired set has the ability to produce outputs. We have an option to apply a 'concentration test' that permits a simplified assessment of whether an acquired set of activities and assets is not a business. The optional concentration test is met if substantially all of the fair value of the gross assets acquired is concentrated in a single identifiable asset or group of similar identifiable assets.

Acquisitions of businesses are accounted for using the acquisition method. The consideration transferred in a business combination is measured at fair value, which is calculated as the sum of the acquisition date fair value of assets transferred by us, liabilities incurred by us to the former owners of the acquiree and the equity interest issued by us in exchange of the control of the acquiree. Acquisition related costs are recognised in Restated Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss as incurred except if related to the issue of debt or equity securities.

Purchase consideration paid in excess / shortfall of the fair value of identifiable assets and liabilities including contingent liabilities and contingent assets, is recognised as goodwill / capital reserve respectively.

Business combination involving entities or businesses under common control are accounted for using the pooling of interest method. Under pooling of interest method, the assets and liabilities of the combining entities / business are reflected at their carrying value. The difference if any, between the consideration paid by the acquirer and the amount of share capital of the transferor is transferred to capital reserve.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities and assets or liabilities related to employee benefits arrangements are recognised and measured in accordance with Ind AS 12 "Income Taxes" and Ind AS 19 "Employee Benefits" respectively.

Potential tax effects of temporary differences and carry forwards of an acquiree that exist at the acquisition date or arise as a result of the acquisition are accounted in accordance with Ind AS 12.

Goodwill arising on an acquisition of a business is carried at cost as established at the date of acquisition of the business less accumulated impairment losses, if any. For the purposes of impairment testing, goodwill is tested at the independent cash generating unit. A cash-generating unit to which goodwill has been allocated is tested for impairment annually, or more frequently when there is an indication that the unit may be impaired. If the recoverable amount of the cash-generating unit is less than its carrying amount, the impairment loss is allocated first to reduce the carrying amount of any goodwill allocated to the unit and then to the other assets of the unit pro rata based on the carrying amount of each asset in the unit. Any impairment loss for goodwill is recognised directly in Restated Consolidated Statement of Profit or Loss. An impairment loss recognised for goodwill is not reversed in subsequent periods.

Operating Cycle

All assets and liabilities have been classified as current or non-current as per our normal operating cycle and other criteria set out in Schedule III to the Companies Act 2013. Terms of a liability that could, at the option of the counterparty, result in its settlement by the issue of equity instruments do not affect its classification.

Based on the nature of our products / activities and the normal time between acquisition of assets and their realization in cash or cash equivalents we have determined our operating cycle as twelve months for the purpose of classification of its assets and liabilities as current and non-current.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are classified as non-current assets and liabilities. Advance tax paid is classified as non-current assets.

Borrowing Cost

Borrowing costs directly attributable to the acquisition or construction of qualifying assets, which are assets that necessarily take a substantial period of time to get ready for their intended use or sale, are added to the cost of those assets, until such time as the assets are substantially ready for their intended use or sale.

All other borrowing costs are recognised in Restated Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss in the period in which they are incurred.

We suspend capitalization of borrowing costs during extended periods in which it suspends active development of a qualifying asset.

The entity determines the amount of borrowing costs eligible for capitalization as the actual borrowing costs incurred on that borrowing during the period less any interest income earned on temporary investment of specific borrowings pending their expenditure on qualifying assets, to the extent that an entity borrows funds specifically for the purpose of obtaining a qualifying asset. If any specific borrowing remains outstanding after the related asset is ready for its intended use or sale, that borrowing becomes part of the funds that an entity borrows generally when calculating the capitalization rate on general borrowings. In case if the entity borrows generally and uses the funds for obtaining a qualifying asset, borrowing costs eligible for capitalization are determined by applying a capitalization rate to the expenditure on that asset.

Prepaid Common Infrastructure Facility Charges

Prepaid common infrastructure facility charges represent upfront payments made to secure the right to use the common infrastructure facilities, where ownership remains with a third party. These payments are recognised as assets at the amount paid on the date the right is obtained and amortised over the period of use.

Redemption liability (Non-controlling interests (“NCI”))

The Parent Company is writer of the put option to the non-controlling interest (NCI) shareholders in specific subsidiaries to acquire the entire shareholding at a predetermined fixed exercise price where the right to exercise is with NCI shareholders. As a result of this contractual commitment with the Parent Company, NCI shareholders do not have present access to the returns associated with the subsidiaries. The present value of the amount payable under this contract is recorded under financial liability, reflecting the Parent Company's obligation to purchase the shares of the NCI shareholders. The difference between the present value and the amount paid by NCI has been recognised under Other equity.

Critical accounting judgements and key sources of estimation uncertainty

The preparation of Restated Consolidated Financial Information in conformity with the recognition and measurement principles of Ind AS requires management to make judgments, estimates and assumptions, that effect the reported balances of assets and liabilities, disclosures relating to contingent liabilities/contingent assets as at the date of the Restated Consolidated Financial Information and the reported amounts of income and expenses for the years presented. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

These estimates and associated assumptions are based on historical experiences and various other factors that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances. The estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revision to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimate is revised if the revision affect only that period, or in the period of the revision and future periods if the revision affects both current and future period.

In particular, information about significant areas of estimation, uncertainty and critical judgments in applying accounting policies that have the most significant effect on the amounts recognised in the Restated Consolidated Financial Information pertain to:

- Useful lives of property, plant and equipment and other intangible assets: We review the useful life of property, plant and equipment and other intangible assets at the end of each reporting period. This reassessment may result in change in depreciation and amortization expense in future periods.
- Impairment of non-financial assets including ROU asset: We estimate the value in use of the cash generating unit (CGU) based on future cash flows after considering current economic conditions and trends, estimated future operating results, growth rate and anticipated future economic and regulatory conditions. The estimated cash flows are developed using internal forecasts. The cash flows are discounted using a suitable discount rate in order to calculate the present value.
- Impairment of investments: We review our carrying value of investments annually, or more frequently when there is indication for impairment. If the recoverable amount is less than its carrying amount, the impairment loss is accounted for.
- Defined benefit plans: The cost of the defined benefit plans and the present value of the defined benefit obligation are based on actuarial valuation using the projected unit credit method. An actuarial valuation involves making various assumptions that may differ from actual developments in the future. These include the determination of the discount rate, future salary increases and mortality rates. Due to the complexities involved in the valuation and its long-term nature, a defined benefit obligation is highly sensitive to changes in these assumptions. All assumptions are reviewed at each reporting date.

- Impairment of financial assets: The impairment provision for financial assets (other than trade receivables) are based on assumptions of risk of default and expected loss rates. We make judgements about these assumptions for selecting the inputs to the impairment calculation, based on our past history, existing market conditions as well as forward looking estimates at the end of each reporting period.
- Trade receivables are stated at their transaction values as reduced by appropriate allowances for estimated irrecoverable amounts which are based on the aging of the receivable balances and historical experiences. Individual trade receivables are written off when management deems them not be collectible.
- Costs to complete for Construction contracts: Our management estimates the costs to complete for each project for the purpose of revenue recognition and recognition of anticipated losses on projects, if any. In the process of calculating the cost to complete, management conducts regular and systematic reviews of actual results and future projections with comparison against budget. This process requires monitoring controls including financial and operational controls and identifying major risks that we face and developing and implementing initiatives to manage those risks. Our management is confident that the costs to complete the project are fairly estimated.
- Share based payment: Estimating fair value for share-based payment transactions requires determination of the most appropriate valuation model, which depends on the terms and conditions of the grant. This estimate also requires determination of the most appropriate inputs to the valuation model including the expected life of the share option, volatility and dividend yield and making assumptions about them. For the measurement of the fair value of equity-settled transactions with employees at the grant date, the Group uses Binomial model.
- Evaluation of control / joint control / significant influence: We make assumptions, when assessing whether we exercise control, joint control or significant influence over entities in which we hold less than 100 percent of the voting rights. These assumptions are made based on the contractual rights with the other shareholders, relevant facts and circumstances which indicate that we have power over the potential subsidiary or that joint control exists. Changes to contractual arrangements or facts and circumstances are monitored and are evaluated to determine whether they have a potential impact on the assessment as to whether we are exercising control over our investment.
- Recognition of deferred tax asset: The deferred tax assets in respect of brought forward business losses is recognised based on reasonable certainty of the projected profitability, determined on the basis of approved business plans, to the extent that sufficient taxable income will be available to absorb the brought forward business losses. We review the carrying amount of deferred tax assets at the end of each reporting period. The policy has been detailed in Note (i) above.

1. The KERC, vide its orders dated July 4, 2014 and August 18, 2014, respectively, had set out the quantum of open access charges (including exemptions thereto) payable in relation to solar, wind and mini hydel projects commissioned between April 1, 2013 and March 31, 2018. Subsequently, vide its order dated May 14, 2018 (“KERC Order”), the KERC revised the applicable open access charges and withdrew exemptions previously granted by it. Our Company, certain of our Subsidiaries and other third parties (“Petitioners”) filed a writ petition dated February 6, 2019, before the High Court of Karnataka, challenging the KERC Order. Subsequently, the KERC Order was quashed by the High Court of Karnataka, vide its order dated March 13, 2019 (“HC Order”), on grounds that: (i) the KERC is estopped from revisiting and revising the open access charges determined as per the terms of settled statutory contracts executed with the Petitioners; and (ii) the powers of the KERC to regulate its own procedure cannot be interpreted as the power to alter substantive rights of the Petitioners, through withdrawal of exemptions which result in retrospective revision of tariffs for solar, wind and mini hydel projects. Aggrieved by the HC Order, the KERC filed an appeal dated April 11, 2019 before the High Court of Karnataka asking for the HC Order to be set aside on grounds of non-application of mind. The matter is currently pending.
2. Sri Vilas Goutham and Sri Mahaveer (“Petitioners”) filed a public interest litigation through a writ petition dated January 22, 2020 before the High Court of Karnataka (“Karnataka HC”), alleging that our Company and certain of our Subsidiaries have not complied with the applicable land pricing and land conversion and regulatory approvals in relation to the underlying project land for under-construction solar farms located at Allolli and Kalkamba villages in Sedam Taluk, Karnataka. These alleged non-compliances include inter alia (i) failure to obtain building and other approvals from the local authorities; (ii) commencement of construction before grant of land use conversion approval; and (iii) purchase of land parcels at commercially agreed upon valuation which is allegedly lower than the Government valuation of such land, in violation of provisions of the Karnataka Land Revenue Act, 1964 and Land Reforms Act, 1961. The Karnataka HC issued directions to the Petitioners for removal of office objections, which are yet to be complied with. The matter is currently pending.

1. K.C. Jain and certain other minority shareholders (“Petitioners”, which term includes their legal heirs or representatives named in subsequent filings), then holding approximately 33.00% shareholding in JTIL filed a petition dated October 21, 1999 under sections 397 and 398 of the Companies Act, 1956 before the Company Law Board (Principal Bench), New Delhi (“CLB”), alleging oppression and mismanagement in the affairs of JTIL. Vinod Kumar Jain was one of the respondents mentioned in the petition, along with certain other directors of JTIL and certain of their family members. Subsequently, on recommendation of the CLB, the parties mutually agreed that the Petitioners would exit the Company upon receipt of fair consideration for their shares, and a consent arrangement to this effect was recorded by the CLB vide its order dated December 23, 1999 (“Consent Order”). However, the Consent Order could not be effectuated due to failure of multiple valuation attempts and subsequent disagreements with the Petitioners regarding the appropriate method of valuation. On April 24, 2007, the Petitioners approached the CLB with a fresh claim for change in the date of valuation, which was refused vide order of the CLB dated July 2, 2007. Aggrieved by the dismissal, the Petitioners filed an application (“Recall Application”) with the CLB seeking recall of the Consent Order. Aggrieved by the Impugned Order, the Petitioners filed the HC Appeal under section 10F of the Companies Act, 1956 for setting aside of the Impugned Order.

During pendency of proceedings and following the unfortunate demise of Nidhi Jain’s father, Vinod Kumar Jain, she was substituted as a party to the HC Appeal vide an order dated August 30, 2024. The matter is currently pending.

Phased implementation of Unified Payments Interface

SEBI has issued the UPI Circulars in relation to streamlining the process of public issue of, inter alia, equity shares. Pursuant to the UPI Circulars, the UPI Mechanism has been introduced in a phased manner as a payment mechanism (in addition to mechanism of blocking funds in the account maintained with SCSBs under ASBA) for applications by RIBs through Designated Intermediaries with the objective to reduce the time duration from public issue closure to listing from six Working Days to up to three Working Days. Considering the time required for making necessary changes to the systems and to ensure complete and smooth transition to the UPI payment mechanism, the UPI Circulars have introduced the UPI Mechanism in three phases in the following manner:

Phase I: This phase was applicable from January 1, 2019 until March 31, 2019 or floating of five main board public issues, whichever was later. Subsequently, the timeline for implementation of Phase I was extended till June 30, 2019. Under this phase, an RIB had the option to submit the ASBA Form with any of the Designated Intermediary and use his/ her UPI ID for the purpose of blocking of funds. The time duration from public issue closure to listing continued to be six Working Days.

Phase II: This phase has become applicable from July 1, 2019, and was to initially continue for a period of three months or floating of five main board public issues, whichever is later. SEBI vide its circular no. SEBI/HO/CFD/DCR2/CIR/P/2019/133 dated November 8, 2019 has decided to extend the timeline for implementation of UPI Phase II until March 31, 2020. Subsequently, SEBI vide its circular no. SEBI/HO/CFD/DIL2/CIR/P/2020/50 dated March 30, 2020 extended the timeline for implementation of UPI Phase II until further notice. Under this phase, submission of the ASBA Form by RIBs through Designated Intermediaries (other than SCSBs) to SCSBs for blocking of funds has been discontinued and replaced by the UPI Mechanism. However, the time duration from public issue closure to listing continues to be six Working Days during this phase.

Phase III: This phase has become applicable on a voluntary basis for all issues opening on or after September 1, 2023 and on a mandatory basis for all issues opening on or after December 1, 2023, vide SEBI circular bearing number SEBI/HO/CFD/TPD1/CIR/P/2023/140 dated August 9, 2023 (“T+3 Notification”). In this phase, the time duration from public issue closure to listing is proposed to be reduced to three Working Days. Accordingly, upon commencement of Phase III, the reduced time duration shall be applicable for the Offer. The SEBI ICDR Master Circular, has consolidated and rescinded the aforementioned circulars, including the T+3 Notification, to the extent they relate to the SEBI ICDR Regulations. The Offer was undertaken pursuant to the processes and procedures as notified in the SEBI ICDR Master Circular as applicable, subject to any circulars, clarification or notification issued by SEBI from time to time, including any circular, clarification or notification which may be issued by SEBI.

All SCSBs offering facility of making application in public issues also had to provide facility to make application using UPI. Our Company was required to appoint an SCSB as the Sponsor Banks to act as conduits between the Stock Exchanges and NPCI in order to facilitate collection of requests and / or payment instructions of the UPI Bidders.

Individual investors bidding under the Non-Institutional Portion bidding for more than ₹ 200,000 and up to ₹ 500,000, using the UPI Mechanism, were required to provide their UPI ID in the Bid-cum-Application Form for Bidding through Syndicate, sub-syndicate members, Registered Brokers, RTAs or CDPs, or online using the facility of linked online trading, demat and bank account (3 in 1 type accounts), provided by certain brokers.

Pursuant to the UPI Circulars, SEBI has set out specific requirements for redressal of investor grievances for applications that have been made through the UPI Mechanism. The requirements of the UPI Circulars include, appointment of a nodal officer by the SCSB and submission of their details to SEBI, the requirement for SCSBs to send SMS alerts for the blocking and unblocking of UPI mandates, the requirement for the Registrar to submit details of cancelled, withdrawn or deleted applications, and the requirement for the bank accounts of unsuccessful Bidders to be unblocked no later than one day from the date on which the Basis of Allotment is finalised. Failure to unblock the accounts within the timeline would result in the SCSBs being penalised under the relevant securities law.

The processing fees for applications made by UPI Bidders using the UPI Mechanism may be released to the SCSBs only after such banks provide a written confirmation, in compliance with the SEBI ICDR Master Circular, in compliance with circulars prescribed by SEBI and applicable law.

Failure to unblock the accounts within the timeline would result in the SCSBs being penalised under the relevant securities law. Further, in terms of the UPI Circulars, the payment of processing fees to the SCSBs shall be undertaken pursuant to an application made by the SCSBs to the BRLMs, and such application shall be made only after (i) unblocking of application amounts for each application received by the SCSB has been fully completed, and (ii) applicable compensation relating to investor complaints has been paid by the SCSB.

RESTRICTIONS ON FOREIGN OWNERSHIP OF INDIAN SECURITIES

Foreign investment in Indian securities is regulated through the Industrial Policy, 1991 of the Government of India and FEMA. While the Industrial Policy, 1991 prescribes the limits and the conditions subject to which foreign investment can be made in different sectors of the Indian economy, FEMA regulates the precise manner in which such investment may be made. Foreign investment is permitted (except in the prohibited sectors) in Indian companies, either through the automatic route or the approval route, depending upon the sector in which foreign investment is sought to be made. The Government of India makes policy announcements on FDI through press notes and press releases. The regulatory framework, over a period of time, thus, consists of acts, regulations, press notes, press releases, and clarifications among other amendments. The DPIIT (formerly Department of Industrial Policy & Promotion) issued the Consolidated FDI Policy Circular dated October 15, 2020, with effect from October 15, 2020 (the “FDI Policy”), which consolidates and supersedes all previous press note, press releases and clarifications on FDI issued by the DPIIT that were in force and effect prior to October 15, 2020.

The transfer of shares between an Indian resident and a non-resident does not require the prior approval of the RBI, provided that (i) the activities of the investee company are under the automatic route under the FDI Policy and transfer does not attract the provisions of the SEBI Takeover Regulations; (ii) the non-resident shareholding is within the sectoral limits under the FDI Policy; and (iii) the pricing is in accordance with the guidelines prescribed by the SEBI/ RBI.

In terms of Press Note 3 of 2020, dated April 17, 2020 (“Press Note”), issued by the DPIIT, the FDI Policy and the FEMA (Non-debt Instruments) Rules has been amended to state that all investments under the foreign direct investment route by entities of a country which shares land border with India or where the beneficial owner of an investment into India is situated in or is a citizen of any such country will require prior approval of the Government of India. Further, in the event of transfer of ownership of any existing or future foreign direct investment in an entity in India, directly or indirectly, resulting in the beneficial ownership falling within the aforesaid restriction/ purview, such subsequent change in the beneficial ownership will also require approval of the Government of India. Pursuant to the Foreign Exchange Management (Non-debt Instruments) (Fourth Amendment) Rules, 2020, a multilateral bank or fund, of which India is a member, shall not be treated as an entity of a particular country nor shall any country be treated as the beneficial owner of the investments of such bank of fund in India. Further, in accordance with the amendment to the Companies (Share Capital and Debentures) Rules, 2014 vide notification dated May 4, 2022 issued by Ministry of Corporate Affairs, a declaration shall be inserted in the share transfer form stipulating whether government approval shall be required to be obtained under Foreign Exchange Management (Non-debt Instruments) Rules, 2019 prior to transfer of shares, as applicable. Each Bidder should seek independent legal advice about its ability to participate in the Offer. In the event such prior approval of the Government of India is required, and such approval has been obtained, the Bidder shall intimate our Company and the Registrar to the Offer in writing about such approval along with a copy thereof within the Offer Period.

As per the FEMA NDI Rules and FDI Policy read with Press Note, 100% foreign direct investment is permitted under the automatic route in our Company, however, investments under the foreign direct investment route by entities of a country which shares land border with India or where the beneficial owner of an investment into India is situated in or is a citizen of any such country will require prior approval of the Government of India.

For details of the aggregate limit for investments by NRIs and FPIs in our Company, see “Offer Procedure – Bids by Eligible Non-resident Indians (“NRIs”)” and “Offer Procedure – Bids by Foreign Portfolio Investors (“FPIs”)” on pages 933 and 934, respectively.

As per the existing policy of the Government of India, OCBs cannot participate in this Offer.
